Dr. Maya Angelou

a bipd.
doesn't sing because it has an answer,
it sings because it has a SONG.

TO FIND OUT MORE about Dr. Angelou's legacy, a team from USPSstamps.com paid a visit to the Maya Angelou Public Charter School in Washington, D.C. Hear what the students had to say at usps.com/maya.

In a 1974 New York Times book review, Dr. Maya Angelou was described as writing "like a song ... [with] a lilting rhythm completely her own." Indeed, the voice of the poet, actress, and champion of civil rights resonated across pages as well as stages to reach countless lives.

So it was fitting for art director Ethel Kessler to embrace the power of words when designing Angelou's stamp. "It's her words that add depth to the stamp and to our memory of her," says Kessler, who believed strongly that an image alone wouldn't have conveyed the poet's impact. To that end, the design pairs a widely-recognized phrase used by Angelou with the 2013 oil portrait she loved, which now hangs in the Smithsonian's National Portrait Gallery. A short excerpt from her book Letter to My Daughter appears in the selvage.

Kessler carried the power of words into yet another recent design, From Me to You (on page 6), which celebrates the connections we make through the mail and arrives just in time for National Card and Letter Writing Month. The stamp sheet features colorful decals and labels in the selvage perfect for personalizing an envelope and complementing the handwritten message inside.

"When I sit down to write a note," Kessler says, "I feel like I'm with that person at that moment. I hope they feel treasured as a friend, and From Me to You captures that."

A self-supporting government enterprise, the U.S. Postal Service is the only delivery service that reaches every address in the nation, 150 million residences, businesses and Post Office Boxes. The Postal Service receives no direct support from taxpayers. With 36,000 retail locations and the most frequently visited website in the federal government, the Postal Service relies on the sale of postage, products, and services to pay for operating expenses. Named the Most Trusted Government Agency five consecutive years and the sixth Most Trusted Business in the nation by the Ponemon Institute, the Postal Service has annual revenue of more than $68 billion and delivers nearly half the world's mail. If it were a private sector company, the U.S. Postal Service would rank 26th in the 2008 Fortune 500.

THE CIVIL WAR 1865
A Nation Touched with Fire

Five Forks April 1, 1865

In our youth our hearts were touched with fire. It was given to us to learn at the outset that life is a profound and passionate thing.
Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr., 20th Massachusetts

With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds;...to do all which may achieve and cherish a just, and a lasting peace, among ourselves, and with all nations.
Abraham Lincoln

Appomattox Court House April 9, 1865

We failed, but in the good providence of God apparent failure often proves a blessing.
Robert E. Lee

And if they lost a leg, the girls won't run, For half a man is better than none, And we'll all feel gay When Johnny comes marching home.
Ben Cotton's parody of Patrick Gilmore's song

It is by miracles we have lived to see this day,— any of us standing here.... How could we help falling on our knees, all of us together, and praying God to pity and forgive us all!
Joshua L. Chamberlain, 20th Maine

THE CIVIL WAR 1864
A Nation Touched with Fire

...it was a sight that is seldom seen to gaze upon the dead bodies of the enemy and to hear the cries for assistance and water... it was enough to break the heart of the most hardened...

Jeremiah Tate, 5th Alabama

...the Tecumseh reeled a little to starboard, her bow settled beneath the surface...her stern lifted high in the air...and the ship pitched out of sight like an arrow twanged from the bow.

Harrie Webster, USS Manhattan

You cannot make soldiers of slaves, nor slaves of soldiers... The day you make soldiers of them is the beginning of the end of the revolution.

Howell Cobb, 16th Georgia

Some of these mornings bright and fair
Take my wings and cleave the air
Pharaoh's army got drowned
O Mary, don't you weep

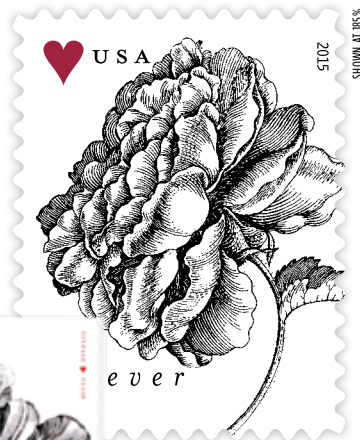

Negro Spiritual

I have given the subject of arming the negro my hearty support...by arming the negro we have added a powerful ally. They will make good soldiers.
