Message from the Postmaster General

Policy Statement on Sexual Orientation

The Postal Service is committed to ensuring a workplace that is free of discrimination and to fostering a climate in which all employees may participate, contribute, and grow to their fullest potential. We recognize and value our diverse workforce and are committed to fair treatment of all employees.

Harassment and disparate treatment based on actual or perceived sexual orientation or identity will not be permitted or condoned in the Postal Service. This policy does not alter current standards of conduct and dress for postal employees. All Postal Service employees have the responsibility to support this policy and to take appropriate steps to ensure a workplace free of discrimination against any person based on his or her sexual orientation or identity. Each of us should:

- Treat every co-worker, customer, and supplier with respect and dignity.
- Examine our attitudes and actions toward people who are different from ourselves.
- Speak out when we see harassment and discrimination in our work environment.

Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) laws and regulations do not provide an avenue to process complaints of discrimination based on sexual orientation or identity; however, employees are encouraged to report any variance from this policy to a management official at the earliest opportunity.

Notice to Finance and Injury Compensation Offices

Replacement of Form 202 by Electronic Health Benefits Refund Report

Form 202, Health Benefits Refund Payment Authorization, will be obsolete after Pay Period 18, FY 95 (September 1, 1995). It will be replaced by the Health Benefits (HB) Refund Report electronically generated by the Workers' Compensation Information System (WCIS), which will be on line and available for use September 6, 1995.

This WCIS-generated HB Refund Report is the only authorized method for reimbursing injured employees for an overdeduction of health benefits premiums by the office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) in accordance with postal policy (see ELM 525.132).

Injury Compensation Offices

Starting in September 1995, to reimburse injured employees for an overdeduction of health benefits premiums, injury compensation offices will:

- 1. Generate the payment authorization in WCIS as "HB Refund Report."
- 2. Certify this report for payment.
- Make copies of the report for Finance, the employee, the employee's official personnel folder (OPF), and the ICCO file.
- 4. Submit the certified report to Finance.

Finance Offices

Finance offices must not process any Forms 202 after Pay Period 18, September 1, 1995. Accept only the WCIS-generated HB Refund Report dated September 1995 for refund of insurance premiums for postal employees per ELM 525.132.

Revised Records Disposition Instructions for OWCP Case Files

At the request of the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), the Postal Service has revised the records disposition instructions for its copies of OWCP case files. Effective immediately, these records must be destroyed at the end of the calendar year 5 years after compensation is terminated.

Previous instructions required these records to be retained on site for 5 years after the employee separated, and then forwarded to a NARA Federal Records Center (FRC) to be retained for an additional 25 years. As a result of this change, Postal Service copies of OWCP case files will no longer be forwarded to FRCs for storage and disposal.

Note that both the retention period and the cutoff point for these records have changed. The cutoff is the point when the active case file is closed and the retention period for the inactive file begins. For OWCP case files, the cutoff has changed from the date of the employee's separation to the end of the calendar year in which his or her compensation is terminated. This means that OWCP case files must be maintained in active files as long as the subject employee (or former employee) is "receiving compensation." For this purpose, "receiving compensation" includes the employee's receipt of wage loss and/or medical payments from OWCP, as well as wages received while the employee is working in "limited duty" status in lieu of receiving compensation for wage loss.

When the employee's compensation is completely terminated (wage loss, medical, and/or limited duty payments are no longer received), the case must be placed in the inactive file. The file will be cut off at the end of the calendar year, and destroyed five years later. This change also means that OWCP case files previously forwarded to FRCs will be scheduled for destruction by NARA 5 years from the end of the calendar year in which the cases were closed (that is, the year in which the subject employees separated from the Postal Service).

NARA has already notified several postal facilities of its plans to destroy OWCP case file records more than 6 years old. As explained above, they are authorized to do so. Although this may mean that some files may be disposed of while the former employees are still receiving compensation, the number is minor. In the event that the case files are ever needed, the Department of Labor, as the legal custodian of these records, continues to maintain the original OWCP case file for 30 years after the record subject separates from federal service.

Revision — Publication 41, USPS Procurement Manual

Publication 41, USPS Procurement Manual, has been revised to (1) consolidate basic pricing agreement (BPA) types from two (unpriced and prepriced) to one, (2) increase the maximum BPA term from two years to five years, and (3) allow BPAs to be established for the fabrication and installation of concrete (or other approved material) pads for cluster box units (CBUs), neighborhood delivery and collection box units (NDCBUs), and outside parcel lockers (OPLs).

Effective immediately, Pub 41, Section 4.3.5 and subparagraph 12.4.6 are revised as follows:

Publication 41

4.3.5 Basic Pricing Agreements

4.3.5.a General. A Basic Pricing Agreement (BPA) is an ordering agreement (see 5.1.8) which permits individuals designated by name or title to place orders by telephone, over the counter, or in writing. BPAs permit consolidated invoicing (usually monthly) for all purchases made. Establishing BPAs with suppliers from which frequent, repetitive purchases are made can significantly reduce paperwork and administrative costs. Although there is a ceiling for individual orders (see e.4) there is no limit on the aggregate value of orders under a BPA. When the BPA is limited to specific items on a price list, only those items can be ordered; the supplier may revise its price list at any time.

4.3.5.b Use. BPAs are used when:

- A wide variety of items in a broad class of supplies (like hardware, electrical supplies or fuel) may be available from suppliers but quantities and delivery requirements are not known in advance and may vary considerably. BPAs may also be used for services:
- 2. The preparation of numerous written orders and processing of invoices can be avoided; or
- There is a need to provide commercial sources of supply for ordering by offices that do not have other purchasing authority.

4.3.5.c Sources. BPAs should be established with suppliers from which numerous individual purchases will likely be made in a given period. For example, if past experience shows that certain suppliers are dependable and consistently lower in price than other suppliers, and if numerous small purchases are made from them, it would be advantageous to establish BPAs with them. BPAs should also be established with small, minority-, and woman-owned businesses.

4.3.5. d Multiple BPAs. BPAs for the same class of supplies or services should be established concurrently with more than one supplier. This allows competition to be obtained before orders are placed.

4.3.5.e Restrictions. The following restrictions apply to BPAs:

- BPAs may not be made for supplies or services required to be obtained or purchased from sources specified in 3.1.
- BPAs may not be used for new construction or for repairs and alterations, with the exception of the fabrication and installation of concrete (or other approved material) pads for cluster box units (CBUs), neighborhood delivery collection box units (NDCBUs), and outside parcel lockers (OPLs).
- 3. The term of a BPA may not exceed five years.
- Individual orders may not exceed $10,000 (except for fuel, where the ordering limit is tank capacity).
   Local organizations may establish lower ceilings.
- 5. When using BPAs, competition must be obtained when placing orders over the competitive threshold (see 4.3.1.d). Competition may be limited to suppliers holding BPAs. If competition is not obtainable, the purchase file must show the reason, and the order is subject to the requirements of 4.4.
- 4.3.5.f Establishing BPAs. BPAs are established in accordance with requirements for ordering agreements (see 5.1.8). For procedural guidance, see the relevant handbook.

4.3.5.g Ordering.

- Orders placed under BPAs are usually made orally. Written orders may be by letter or purchase order. Documentation of orders should be limited to essential information.
- 2. When orders are placed under a BPA established for specific items on a price list, only the items on the price list may be ordered.
- 4.3.5.h Review. Contracting officers must review BPA files at least annually to ensure that authorized procedures are being followed and that continued use is justified.

12.4.6 Procurement Methods

12.4.6.f Alternatives to Contracts

* * * * * *

4. Set Rate Ordering Agreements. Set-rate ordering agreements are used when a number of contractors agree to provide specified services at a common rate established by the Postal Service. These agreements may be established as discussed in 5.1.8, and the contracting officer should order services using the most advantageous delivery terms under the circumstances.

These changes will be contained in the next transmittal letter to Pub 41.

Revision to PS Form 3971, Request for or Notification of Absence

A revised Form 3971, Request for or Notification of Absence, dated June 1995, is available from the material distribution centers (MDCs).

This revised edition incorporates:

- A new block for nonscheduled days (N/S Day). This is to be utilized when employees request to be excused from duty when they have been scheduled to report for duty on a regular off day.
- Two new blocks under the official action portion of the form. These should be used to indicate whether the leave approval is for a situation covered by the Family and Medical Leave Act. (See ELM revision published in Postal Bulletin 21847, dated 8-5-93.)

When completing Form 3971, note on the reverse side any documentation required that is not provided with the form, and return a copy of the signed Form 3971 to the employee. (Include a copy of the reverse side when additional documentation is noted.)

Offices may order the revised edition from the MDCs using Form 7380, MDC Supply Requisition. Destroy all previous editions of Form 3971 upon receipt of the revised form.

National Consumers Week, October 22–28, 1995

The United States Office of Consumer Affairs again plans to educate and inform customers about their rights and responsibilities in the marketplace through National Consumers Week, October 22 through 28. This year's national theme is "Service: It's Your Right."

The National Consumer Week observance will raise awareness of Postal Service products and services; improve understanding of Postal Service operations; and educate consumers about the use of the mails and Inspection Service efforts to protect the public from fraudulent schemes and other postal crimes. National Consumers Week is an opportunity to establish or affirm ties with the local community.

The U.S. Postal Service encourages postmasters and facility managers to support this consumer education effort by sponsoring some of the activities listed in this Postal Bulletin during National Consumers Week.

As in past years, districts are invited to forward information about particularly noteworthy efforts that might be newsworthy to Consumer Affairs at Headquarters.

Suggested Ideas and Activities for Postmasters and Facility Managers

Consider designating each day of the week to publicize one or two different types of services we offer. Plan activities that educate customers about these services. For example:

Monday: Focus on the different service levels available for sending mail. Designate a window clerk to sit in a special booth and explain the different levels of service offered for sending a package or a letter. Make available to customers materials that explain the different classes of mail.

Tuesday: Focus on special mailing services, highlighting information on service options, such as registered, certified, and insured mails.

Wednesday: Educate customers about the other customer services the Postal Service offers, such as forwarding and hold mail service, money orders, easy stamp services, and stamp collecting information.

Thursday: Center activities around information services available to customers. Emphasize Postal Answer Line, A Consumer's Guide to Postal Services and Products (Publication 201), Postal Business Centers, and other local mechanisms established to provide customers with information.

Friday: Coordinate activities relating to consumer and protection services the U.S. Postal Service provides. Highlight the Postal Inspection Service consumer complaint program and fraud prevention activities can be highlighted. Other consumer services to highlight include claims processing, complaints and inquiry service, and the Consumer Service Card.

A chart illustrating this idea is located on page 13. A list of the ways the Postal Service provides service to the customer is included in this article. Some of these services are well known to the public, others not.

 Design a check stuffer to accompany employee paychecks informing them about National Consumers Week activities that will be held at your office.

- Hold an educational seminar related to postal services. Invite the general public to meet local postal contacts who will assist them and make working with the Postal Service easier.
- Set up an information booth for local postal inspectors and/or the consumer affairs and claims manager to provide information and publications on consumer issues.
   Consider information booths about fraud prevention; proper and complete addressing; automation; ZIP + 4 numbering; and proper packaging demonstrations.
- Hold a joint press conference or educational seminar with a local postal inspector. The postal inspector could discuss the latest postal-related scams and how to avoid being victimized. The postmaster can offer tips on how customers can get the most from our services through proper addressing and packaging.
- Work with the local postal inspector to involve senior citizens in combating fraud against the elderly. Hold seminars at local retirement communities. Postal inspectors can discuss such issues as prevalent schemes and how to detect spurious offers. Encourage the local postal inspector to send out news releases on consumer issues and postal crimes.
- Hold an open house and postal fair during National Consumers Week. Hand out consumer publications such as Publication 201, A Consumer's Guide to Postal Services and Products, and Publication 300, A Consumer's Guide to Postal Crime Prevention. Have postal representatives available to answer questions about products and services to help customers learn how to get the most from what we offer. Consider including consumer related informational brochures from other federal and state agencies and local consumer bureaus. (See list of postal brochures and notices available through the materiel distribution centers on page 8.)
- Open a dialogue with other city, county, or state consumer affairs professionals (e.g., Better Business Bureau, Society of Consumer Affairs Professionals (SOCAP), and state or municipal consumer affairs offices). Share ideas on consumer protection and awareness issues. Hold a joint seminar on a consumer-related issue.

- Celebrate or announce something recently done to improve local service and to enhance customer satisfaction during National Consumers Week. For example, promote extended hours, an expanded post office box section, an improved facility, or a new handicap ramp.
- Start a regular tour program during National Consumers Week if the office does not already have one. Advertise the program to the media. Have tour guides discuss how customers can get better service and help the Postal Service utilize full automation capabilities through complete addressing and correct mail preparation.
- Hold special training or education sessions on mail preparation for mailers or customers in conjunction with National Consumers Week.
- Be a guest on local TV and radio talk shows discussing such topics as the variety of services the Postal Service has to offer and their advantages over our competitors, consumer protection and customer satisfaction initiatives.

- Establish a Customer Advisory Council. The district consumer affairs and claims manager can provide a handbook on how to get started. A good first project for the council could be to link consumer protection efforts with the Postal Inspection Service and local law enforcement. If a Customer Advisory Council is established, involve its members in National Consumers Week planning and activities.
- Have local officials declare National Consumers Week and prepare a promotion around the event. Consider having the mayor sign a National Consumers Week Proclamation. (See sample proclamation on page 9.)
- Present an appreciation award to one or more local TV and radio consumer reporters from the post office. The award ceremony could be the centerpiece for a full-fledged event, with tables arranged to display consumer information and mailing aids. (See sample plaque language on page 9.) Advertise the event in local newspapers, and invite other consumer groups to participate.
- Participate in a public seminar related to consumer education.
- Host a consumer fair or library display, using ideas for information booths and seminars described above for holding an open house or postal fair.

Useful Tips for Postmasters and Managers Planning National Consumers Week Activities

- Appoint a planning committee. If possible, involve the local Customer Advisory Council in planning National Consumers Week events.
- List the events. Set a date for each event and work backward, leaving plenty of time for glitches.
- Identify the audience for each event households, businesses, students, or special interest groups.
- If the post office plans to team up with other consumer groups, pick an event and contact the other groups to share ideas. For names of consumer groups in the area, contact the local SOCAP.
- Issue a news release outlining the planned events. In-

- clude pertinent facts such as date, place, and purpose. Place posters in public places.
- Pitch the event to news reporters, television and radio program producers, and talk shows.
- The consumer affairs and claims manager for the district serves as a consultant and resource for postmasters and managers planning National Consumers Week activities. The district Consumer Affairs and Claims Office also serves as a clearinghouse for additional information and materials received after this printing. Contact the Consumer Affairs and Claims Office in your district as necessary for consultation and guidance.

Speech for Postmasters

Service With A Capital "S"

(The following speech may be used by postmasters or station managers as a National Consumers Week message. For best results, adapt the speech by interjecting local information of interest to the local audience.)

(Good morning/afternoon/evening):

I appreciate the opportunity to speak to you about the United States Postal Service during National Consumers Week.

The United States Office of Consumer Affairs, by presidential proclamation, has declared the last week of October as National Consumers Week.

Celebration of National Consumers Week was initiated in 1982 to acknowledge and emphasize the significant stake consumers have in our economy. Our economy has three bases: capital, labor, and consumers. Without consumers, the economy would simply lose its balance.

National Consumers Week is dedicated to educating and informing customers about their rights and responsibilities in the marketplace. The Postal Service observance of National Consumers Week is intended to raise awareness of the products and services we offer; improve understanding of Postal Service operations; and educate consumers about issues related to the Postal Service, use of the mails, and Inspection Service efforts to protect the public from fraudulent schemes and other postal crimes.

National Consumers Week is the perfect time for the U.S. Postal Service, along with other consumer groups, to reemphasize the important role of our consumers. We recognize the importance of consumers and the importance of providing service — with a capital "S" — to maintain our standing in the marketplace.

When we changed from the Post Office Department in 1971 to become an independent agency free from political influence and to come out from under the burden of the tax-payers, a lot of thought went into the name — including putting the word "service" into it. Now, let me say this: "Service" may come last in our corporate title, but it is first on our minds each and every day.

Service with a smile. Service in 5 minutes or less. Service that's convenient.

Service that's reliable. Services you can choose. Service with a capital "S."

There is no substitute for good service.

The U.S. Postal Service is a large service organization — nearly 750,000 strong. We provide all households and businesses across the United States with equal ability to communicate and conduct business through prompt, reliable, and economical services for the collection, transmission, and delivery of messages and merchandise. No other service organization or communications company can say the same.

We are working hard at becoming the most efficient and effective service in the federal government and in the markets that we serve. To achieve this, we know we have to pay attention to our customers. Like no time before, the U.S. Postal Service is dedicated to improving service to you, our customer, while at the same time improving internal efficiency.

Locally we have (fill in local changes such as extended hours, additional windows, earlier mail delivery, service in 5 minutes or less, great EXFC/CSI scores, positive impact of remote video sorting, and delivery point sequencing).

We know that we have to educate our customers about the products and services we offer, so that they can choose wisely to ensure our products meet their expectations. And then we have to make it easy for customers to use our products.

Long gone are the days when the only place you could buy a stamp was at the post office. Today, you can buy stamps by mail (hold up a Stamps by Mail form), or you can order stamps over the phone with a credit card by dialing 800-STAMP-24. You can also purchase a variety of philatelic products through this 800 number (hold up a Stamps, etc. catalog). You can purchase stamps at the local (list grocery stores, etc. where customers can purchase stamps). And we have (list contract stations) where you can not only buy stamps, but you can conduct almost all other types of postal transactions. At "Pac N Mail" and "Mail Boxes, Etc." and all those other alternative mailing services, UPS and FedEx aren't your only options. You can choose the Postal Service, too. Now that's service that's convenient.

As an aside, I do feel obligated to mention that these alternative mailing services add a surcharge to scheduled postage and fees in order to cover their costs. That's how they make a profit. Even so, we often are still less expensive than our competitors for comparable services. Check it out. And if you want to avoid a surcharge, visit us or one of our contract stations. We provide service in five minutes or less at all our postal lobbies.

In addition, we have added other conveniences to our operations that you may not be aware of. Senders now have the option to indicate on packages that they prefer to have the letter carrier leave the package in a secure location if the recipient is not home when delivery is first attempted. This helps speed delivery for the customer. And you, the recipient, save time because you no longer have to make a trip to the post office or wait for redelivery.

We offer all sorts of "freebies" at our post offices. At no cost to you, we provide Express Mail envelopes, Express Mail flat envelopes, Express Mail tubes, and Express Mail boxes (tubes and boxes are at most major post office). We also provide free Priority Mail envelopes, Priority Mail boxes, and Priority Mail flat rate envelopes. Can't get to the post office to pick these up? Just call 800-222-1811, and we will deliver whatever you need. Now that's convenience!

We are not just "convenient." We also offer a choice of reliable services to meet your needs.

You can purchase a gift during your lunch hour, wrap it, put it in an Express Mail overnight box, stop by the post office on the way back to work to send it, and have it arrive the next day — guaranteed or your money back. This service is great if you're like me and tend to forget special occasions until the last minute.

Want it there fast, but overnight is not necessary? Try our Priority Mail service. While this service does not come with a money back guarantee, we do give Priority Mail expedited handling. If speed is not your concern, but cost is, you can use our parcel post service. You can expect delivery in 3 to 10 days, depending upon the distance the package must travel.

With the U.S. Postal Service, you choose the level of service you need. The same is true for the special services we offer — registered, certified, and insurance. You can purchase these services if you need them. If you need insurance, you can purchase it. If you don't need it, no need to purchase it. Insurance fees are not built into our basic rate so that you pay for it whether or not you need it.

Service that is reliable. Services you can choose.

All brochures found in post office lobbies are free. One of my personal favorites from a customer's point-of-view is A Consumer's Guide to Postal Services and Products. It contains a wealth of information, including how to use registered mail, certified mail, and money orders. We have brochures and booklets on proper addressing, preparing and wrapping packages, stamp collecting, postal crime prevention, and many, many more.

(If applicable) We also have the Postal Answer Line (PAL), an automated telephone information line, with 24-hour around-the-clock answers to postal questions. PAL tells you the hours of all the post offices in our area and provide information on their locations. You can obtain the latest information on many of our products and services. PAL can even help you calculate postage costs for commonly used services. At special times during the year, such as Christmas or income tax night, PAL offers a list of post offices open additional hours. You might like to take note of our local number. It is ###-####.

(If applicable) We now have a business center designed to help all business mailers. Our mailing experts can guide you on proper addressing and give you ideas on how to save money on business mailings.

All these services, from brochures in the lobby to the expert advice available in our business centers, are free. Now that's service with a capital "S."

If you feel, at any time, you are not getting service with a capital "S," speak to one of our window clerks or myself. Also, every post office displays Consumer Service Cards. Just take a moment to write your complaint or compliment, and you will get action. That I guarantee.

I stand before you today as a representative of the (fill in the correct number) United States Postal Service men and women in our city/town. We want you to know that we value your business. National Consumers Week is a fitting time to emphasize our commitment to you to provide the best postal service ever — to provide Service with a capital "S."

Express Mail Service Directory — Distribution of IRT Update Diskettes

All post offices that use UNISYS II, UNISYS III, or MOS integrated retail terminals (IRTs) to accept Express Mail should receive on or about August 31 an Express Mail directory update diskette from UNISYS or MOS. If more than one type of IRT is used for Express Mail, offices should receive a separate diskette for each type. If an office has a weighing and rating unit (WRU), it should receive a UNISYS III or WRU diskette to update the directory on the WRU.

MOS IRTs are in the process of being retrofitted, after which they will use double-sided/high-density diskettes rather than the previous double-sided/double-density diskettes. Since the retrofit process will be nearly complete by the end of August, MOS will send only a high-density diskette to each MOS retail unit. MOS double-density diskettes will no longer be provided. Units whose MOS IRTs have not yet been retrofitted will set the high-density diskette aside until their machines are upgraded and continue to use their existing networks — a period that should not exceed 2 weeks. Once their IRTs are retrofitted, those offices will immediately install the August 1995 Express Mail Network.

The Express Mail network on the diskette is effective immediately. Install the Express Mail service directory on your IRT diskettes and WRUs at once (instructions for updating are included with the diskette). Also enclosed is a form to complete and send to your expedited service specialist indicating receipt and updating of the Express Mail directory on your IRT diskettes and WRUs.

If your office did not receive the appropriate type of IRT diskettes for the IRTs or WRUs at your office, immediately contact your expedited service specialist (Express Mail office). If you have difficulty loading the directory from the diskettes you receive, contact the IRT vendors hotline:

UNISYS, including WRUs 800-247-6478 MOS 800-346-0902

Direct other questions — including those related to the content of your new Express Mail directory or cutoff times — to your expedited service specialist.

Firm Holdout Service

Firm holdout service is an informal delivery method by which a post office will set aside (or hold out) mail for a particular customer (rather than distribute it to the carrier) so that the customer may call for the mail early in the day.

In March 1994, the Postal Service began a rulemaking that included a proposal to eliminate firm holdout service. This proposal was adopted in June 1994, to be effective on October 2, 1994. However, by an announcement issued to areas and districts on September 1, 1994, the elimination of firm holdout service was delayed until the end of Fiscal Year 1995 (September 15, 1995) to permit further evaluation of this action. That evaluation has not been completed; therefore, firm holdout service is to be continued indefinitely for those customers to whom it is now provided. New applicants for firm holdout service should not be denied, but advised that the service is under review and subject to change accordingly. Although no fee is charged for firm holdout service, the applicable fees are payable for other services such as caller service and post office box service.

Polywrap Coverings on Barcoded Flats

The article titled "Procedures for Authorized Use of Polywrap Coverings on Barcoded Flats," published in Postal Bulletin 21899, August 3, 1995, contained an incorrect telephone number on page 8 under section 2.3 for James River Corporation and did not identify the product name of the approved polyethylene material. The correct telephone number for James River Corporation is 513-576-7144. The product name is JR 106.

Ron Silen, the contact person inadvertently named for James River Corporation in the same article, is the contact person for Amtopp Corporation of Livingston, New Jersey. Amtopp produces the polypropylene material approved for use on mailpieces for the specified mailer as cited on page 8 under section 2.2.

Correct Handling of Forms 3811, Domestic Return Receipt

Delivery employees must complete all Forms 3811, Domestic Return Receipt, when delivering accountable mail. The delivery employee must obtain the recipient's printed name and signature and enter the delivery date on the back of the form if the recipient did not do so. Federal or state officials or large, well-known companies or organizations may use a signature stamp on the return receipt as an authorized signature. The delivery employee must also enter the delivery address if the customer requested and paid for that service.

Return receipts provide mailers with evidence of delivery for mail sent certified, registered, numbered insured (i.e., items insured for more than $50), collect on delivery (COD), return receipt for merchandise, or Express Mail. To get this service, the mailer pays the applicable fee and endorses the piece either "Return Receipt Requested" or "Return Receipt Requested Showing Addressee's Address" above the delivery address and to the right of the return address. In addition, the mailer completes the back of Form 3811, showing to whom the article is addressed, the article number, and the requested service. The mailer must also put the return address on the front of Form 3811 before attaching the return receipt to the mailpiece.

If the Postal Service fails to return the return receipt to the mailer or returns an incorrectly completed form, the mailer may request a duplicate return receipt at no additional charge to find out the delivery date and the name of the person who signed for the article. To obtain a free duplicate return receipt, the mailer must present the original mailing receipt showing that the return receipt fee was paid and must complete Form 3811-A, Duplicate Return Receipt.

Registered Mail Limit of Indemnity

The maximum amount of postal insurance coverage that may be purchased for registered mail is $25,000. Customers who mail articles valued over $25,000 should be advised that although the full value of a registered article must be declared at the time of mailing and that the registered fee is based on that amount, the maximum amount of insurance that is payable in the event of loss or damage is $25,000.

If the customer has commercial insurance and desires postal insurance only for the amount of the deductible, charge the amount shown in column A of Domestic Mail Manual (DMM) Exhibit R900.15.0 that corresponds to the amount of postal insurance desired. In addition, the customer is charged a handling fee of $0.45 for each $1,000, or fraction thereof, of the remaining value of the item. The following examples illustrate how registered fees are applied.

—Business Mail Acceptance, Marketing Systems, 8-31-95

Example 1

The customer wants to send an article valued at $60,000 by registered mail and wants to insure it for the maximum amount of postal insurance available. In addition to First-Class postage based on the weight of the article, charge the registered fees as shown below.

The fee for the first $25,000 as shown in

Conditions Applied to Mail Addressed to Military Post Offices Overseas

Mail addressed to, from, or between military post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The table below outlines these conditions by APO/ FPO ZIP Code through the use of footnoted mailing restriction codes, which appear on the last page of the table.

Acceptance clerks should use this table with the integrated retail terminal (IRT) to determine whether an APO/FPO ZIP Code is active and what conditions of mailing apply. For Express Mail Military Service (EMMS) availability, refer to Handbook PO-514, Express Mail Military Service, and the local EMMS directory.

The entire table appears in alternating issues of the Postal Bulletin.

Pictorial Cancellations Announcement 95-17

As a community service, the Postal Service offers pictorial cancellations to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of upcoming events for which pictorial cancellations are authorized appears below. If available, the sponsor of the pictorial cancellation appears in italics under the date. Also provided, as space permits, are illustrations of those cancellations that were reproducible and available at press time.

People attending these local events may obtain the cancellation in person at the temporary post office station established there. Those who cannot attend the event, but who wish to obtain the cancellation, may submit a mail order request. Pictorial cancellations are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial cancellation date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail postage (32 cents per envelope or 20 cents per postcard). Items submitted for cancellation may not include postage issued after the date of the requested cancellation. Such items will be returned unserviced.

Customers wishing to obtain a cancellation should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: PICTORIAL CAN-CELLATIONS, followed by the NAME OF THE STATION, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE, ZIP + 4 CODE, exactly as listed below (using all capitals and no punctuation, except the hyphen in the ZIP + 4 Code).

After applying the pictorial cancellation, the Postal Service returns the envelope or postcard through the mail. Customers who want their serviced item returned under protected cover should include a larger, stamped, selfaddressed envelope.

Copyright USPS 1994

The Postal Service will issue a 32-cent Republic of Palau commemorative stamp (Item 4484) on September 29, in Agana, Guam. The stamp was designed by Herb Kane of Captain Cook, Hawaii.

Its neighbors include the Philippines to the west, Yap Island in the Federated States of Micronesia to the northeast, and the Irian Jaya province of Indonesia to the south.

In 1947, Palau became a part of the United Nations Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, under United States administration. The islands remained a Trust Territory until gaining independence on October 1, 1994, thus becoming the Republic of Palau.

Service Talk for Delivery Employees

The following service talk is intended for use during the first week of September, but may be used or repeated as often as necessary to assist delivery personnel in the prevention of robberies and assaults.

Robberies and Assaults

The likelihood of you, a postal employee, becoming a robbery or assault victim is small, but unfortunately it can happen.

We want to make sure that you are doing all that you can to reduce your chances of being involved in either a robbery or assault and increase your personal safety in the event you are.

There are a number of preventive measures you can take to avoid a robbery. They include staying alert, being aware of your surroundings, making a note of unusual occurrences (i.e., writing down the license plate numbers of vehicles following you and/or circling the neighborhood), not carrying excessive cash or wearing flashy or expensive jewelry on your route, and securing your vehicle and the mail at all times.

Remember, if a robbery does occur:

- Take no action that would jeopardize your personal safety.
- If the robber displays a firearm, consider it loaded and assume he or she is willing to use it.
- Don't panic stay calm and do exactly as you are told. Cooperate and do not try to be a hero.
- Without being obvious, try to observe and get a clear picture of the robber and his or her features in your mind. A vehicle description and license plate number are also very useful. Write down the information as soon as possible. Remember even though you are a victim, try to be a good witness.
- Immediately notify the police, your supervisor, and the Inspection Service. It is not critical that the employee personally call the Inspection Service. It is the responsibility of the delivery supervisor to ensure that the call is made and, if necessary, to make the call.

Preventive measures for an assault are different from a robbery, as most assaults are more spontaneous than a robbery. With this in mind you should take the following steps to help prevent an assault: always be courteous and display a pleasant disposition, don't get involved in verbal arguments (most physical assaults result from minor arguments that get out of control), don't expect your uniform to protect you from assaults, and don't flaunt the right to withhold a customer's mail. Treat irate customers who demand their mail very carefully. Deliver their mail if it will prevent an assault and notify your supervisor of the incident.

However, if you are physically assaulted:

- Do not overreact and become the aggressor.
   Use only the force necessary to defend yourself.
- Promptly notify police, your supervisor, and the Postal Inspectors. Once again, it is not critical that the employee personally calls the Inspection Service, only that they are called. It is the responsibility of the delivery supervisor to ensure that the call is made.
- Make notes of the events that led to the assault while they are fresh in your mind.
- Get names and addresses of any witnesses.

Publication 176, Carrier Robbery/Assault, covers all of these issues in greater detail and includes a chart to list a description of the attacker in a complete and orderly fashion. These will be made available to any employee requesting them and can be used as a periodic reminder of the things we have spoken of today.

Remember: Be Alert, Be Observant, and Be Careful.
