National Consumer Protection Week, March 2–8, 2014

National Consumer Protection Week (NCPW) is a federal program designed to heighten awareness of fraud and help consumers improve their ability to combat crime. During NCPW, federal, state, and local consumer protection agencies — together with consumer organizations and industry associations — launch consumer protection and education efforts around the country. This year, the Postal Service™ and the Postal Inspection Service™ are partnering to educate consumers and caregivers about foreign lottery and sweepstakes schemes that target older Americans. The goals for NCPW are:

- Increase the awareness of older Americans and their caregivers about the dangers of foreign lottery and sweepstakes schemes.
- Give consumers valuable information about protecting their assets from fraudsters.
- Provide a central location where consumers can report suspected fraud. Anyone can be a victim of foreign lottery or sweepstakes fraud, but scammers often target those whom they perceive as vulnerable.

These crimes can seriously affect the lives of victims and their families. Increasingly, the victims are older Americans and cognitively challenged individuals. During NCPW, Postal Inspectors will discuss how citizens can avoid becoming the latest victims of fraud.

Foreign lottery and sweepstakes scammers talk a good game. They ask victims to pay to play — by wire, check, money order, or cash. They try to get consumers to send money that's just for "taxes and fees," or to purchase an item to improve their chances of winning. That's illegal.

The Postal Inspection Service is warning older Americans and caregivers to beware — in a foreign lottery or fraudulent sweepstakes, it's more than just the odds that are against you. If you're contacted to play a foreign lottery or sweepstakes, do the following:

- Don't give out personal or financial information to anyone over the Internet or phone.
- Never wire or send money to anyone, anywhere, who says you've won a foreign lottery or sweepstakes.
- Don't let anyone pressure you into making an immediate decision.
- Never purchase anything until you get all the information in writing.

Foreign lotteries and fraudulent sweepstakes aren't just risky propositions; they may also be illegal. An educated public is the first line of defense. Visit <http://deliveringtrust.com> for helpful information on how to protect yourself and your loved ones from fraud.

Field Resource Kit: National Consumer Protection Week

This year, National Consumer Protection Week (NCPW) runs from March 2-8, 2014. NCPW is a great opportunity for Post Offices™ and facility managers to strengthen relationships with customers through awareness and education. NCPW helps consumers by providing information, materials, and services to improve their ability to protect themselves from fraud.

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service® will ship retail lobby kits to Post Offices to promote NCPW beginning February 27, 2014. The Consumer Advocate and Customer Relations Department endorse using this kit to conduct local events.

The kit includes:

- An introduction/overview.
- National theme.
- Postal Inspection Service retail lobby kit.
- Information links on the web.
- Instructions for ordering publications.
- Suggested activities.
- Message points.
- Remarks for employees speaking at local NCPW events.
- Sample press release.
- Field support contacts.

Information in this kit will also be available at: <http://blue.usps.gov/blue/caweb/events/consumer-protection/>.

Introduction and Overview

The field resource kit provides guidance and information to Postmasters and facility managers who opt to conduct local activities to support National Consumer Protection Week (NCPW), March 2–8, 2014.

Established in 1998, NCPW is a federal program, led by the Federal Trade Commission, that highlights current fraud issues. Customers can become smarter consumers of products, materials, and services, while improving their ability to combat fraud. NCPW is fully supported by the U.S. Postal Service®.

During NCPW, other federal, state, and local consumer protection agencies — together with consumer organizations and industry associations — are launching consumer protection and education efforts around the country.

Headquarter Partners:

- U.S. Postal Inspection Service®.
- Consumer Advocate and Customer Relations.

Postal Inspection Service NCPW Theme: ‘In a Sweepstakes, You Will Lose if You Pay to Play’

Many companies offer legitimate sweepstakes promotions. They want customers to have an enjoyable experience — and to respond to their offer. They also want to ensure that customers understand they have an equal chance of winning, whether or not they purchase products or services. But some sweepstakes offers are not legitimate, requiring customers to pay fees or suggesting customers can improve their chances of winning if they purchase merchandise. When consumers are asked to pay a processing or insurance fee, or increase their chances of winning by making a small purchase, that’s illegal. Postal Inspectors advise: “DON’T DO IT!”

When you PAY to PLAY...you LOSE.

In a legitimate sweepstakes, you never have to pay a fee or purchase an item to enter or win. It's the law.

Postal Inspection Service Retail Lobby Kit

For use during NCPW, Post Offices will receive a retail lobby display with information for customers. This kit should be assembled and placed in lobbies on March 2, 2014, and removed NLT March 8, 2014.

Suggested Activities to Promote NCPW Locally

- Provide your postal employees with information about NCPW activities planned for your area.
- Identify an opportunity where you can invite a local expert to speak at your event. A local Postal Inspector is also recommended, but a representative from a consumer advocacy group or an appropriate regulatory body would also be suitable.
- Collaborate with a financial institution to host an event about foreign lotteries and sweepstakes schemes. Invite a bank or credit union official to talk about what could happen to victims from the financial institution's perspective.
- Work with a Postal Inspector to inform older citizens about fraudulent schemes. Hold seminars at retirement communities. Postal Inspectors can discuss recent foreign lottery cases and sweepstakes scams, and steps to prevent older Americans from becoming victims.
- Work with local schools, colleges, and universities to have an NCPW event to raise awareness among students, parents, and faculty.

- Work with local Girl and Boy Scout Troops or other community-based youth clubs to educate young people about protecting themselves from fraud and scams.
- Let customers know that for seven consecutive years in a national survey, the U.S. Postal Service has been named the most trusted government agency for protecting consumers' privacy. Refer customers to www.usps.com for additional information.
- Work with Corporate Communications staff to coordinate media outreach and press coverage of the week, and planned events through media advisories, news releases, letters to the editors at local newspapers, and calls to area reporters.
- Ensure photos are captured that will highlight events and share successes.

Suggested Message Points for NCPW

Events

- It's never too early or too late to become a more informed and empowered consumer. This year, NCPW is working on educating consumers so they can protect themselves from scammers.
- The United States Postal Service is part of the fabric of the nation by binding communities together. Postal Service employees make a difference in every community across the country.
- The Postal Service is committed to maintaining the public's trust, and has been named the most trusted government agency for the past seven consecutive years by the Ponemon Institute.
- The Postal Inspection Service has a long, proud and successful history of protecting postal employees and customers, and fighting criminals who misuse postal services and products to defraud, endanger, or otherwise threaten the American public.
- The Postal Service is proud to increase awareness about consumer fraud and educate consumers of all ages on how they can better protect themselves from scams.
- Scammers often target older Americans, so Postal Inspectors advise you speak with your older loved ones about foreign lottery and sweepstakes fraud to preserve their financial well-being.
- Monitor all accounts for unusual activity.
- Identify unknown and recurring payments.
- Discuss repeated wire-transfer patterns or check made out to cash.
- Look for stacks of sweepstakes offers or prize notification letters around the home.
- Talk about changes in living conditions — living beneath one's means, past-due bills, etc.

Even if the person or company has no track record of complaints, a scammer may be familiar with watchdog consumer protection agencies. Don't hesitate to discuss fraudulent schemes with friends and family. And don't forget to watch out for those you love — sometimes just a simple "What's new?" can alert you to the fact that a loved one has become a victim of a scam.

Event Planning Checklist

When planning NCPW events, keep the following suggestions in mind:

- Contact your local postal team — Postal Inspectors, Corporate Communications managers, and Consumer and Industry Contact managers — to see how they can help support fraud prevention events in your community.
- Set a date and secure participants.
- Acquire posters, videos, fact sheets, brochures, and other supplies for the event.
- Secure staging, sound equipment, and a podium.
- Plan signage, including signs and banners.
- Launch a local publicity campaign.
- Draft a sequence-of-events agenda and speaker remarks.
- Plan retail opportunities (i.e. booth, bag stuffers, etc.).
- Prepare ceremony programs and invitations.
- Prepare an Event Flow/Agenda that outlines times and items.

Sample Speech

Good (morning/afternoon/evening).

It's a pleasure to be with you today.

For the past 16 years, the country has dedicated one full week as National Consumer Protection Week. It is a time when government agencies, consumer protection groups, and industry associations join forces to shine a spotlight on issues and ideas that help people become better consumers of products, materials, and services as well as improve their knowledge of how to combat fraud.

The U.S. Postal Service and the Postal Inspection Service have been members of the Steering Committee for National Consumer Protection Week since 1998, and we are pleased and proud to once again be a part of this year's effort to help spread the word and increase awareness about consumer protection issues. Customer service and consumer protection are our year-round priorities and we are very proud of the fact that, for more than 200 years, Americans have placed their trust in the mail.

In fact, the Postal Service ranks as the fifth most-trusted company.

We take our universal service obligation — to connect every household and business in the country through the mail — very seriously, and we also know that an educated consumer is the best defense against criminals. That is why we're doing all that we can to educate, advise, and encourage consumers of all ages to learn how to protect their privacy, avoid identity theft, and steer clear of frauds and scams.

For 200 years, Postal Inspectors have been fighting fraud, securing the mail, and protecting postal customers to promote the honesty and integrity of the American marketplace.

Preventing sweepstakes fraud, which targets consumers, is a high priority for the Postal Inspection Service. That's why Postal Inspectors are warning the public and encouraging all to share the information with neighbors, friends, and loved ones.

By definition, a sweepstakes is an advertising or promotional device by which items of value (prizes) are awarded to participating consumers by chance, with no purchase or entry fee required to win.

Consumers often ask how companies can afford such substantial prizes. Sweepstakes are so successful in generating attention to their offers that substantial revenues are gained for the companies that sponsor them.

Thousands of corporations give out millions of dollars annually to lucky consumers. Your chances of winning will vary with the number of people who participate in a particular sweepstakes and the number of prizes offered. You should realize, of course, that the chance of winning a large prize is generally quite small. In most cases, you can enter as often as you receive sweepstakes entries, and some companies will accept write-in entries on a postcard. Check the official rules, but remember — there is no chance to win unless you enter.

Advertised prizes should be awarded unless otherwise stated in the rules. Check the official rules to see if all prizes are guaranteed to be awarded. Most sponsors will provide a list of all prize winners if you are interested in receiving this information.

You never have to purchase an item or pay a fee to enter and win a sweepstakes. You always have an equal chance of winning whether or not you order — it's the law.

If you believe you have received a solicitation in the guise of a sweepstakes, Postal Inspectors advise that the safest way to handle it is to not respond. Report incidents to <http://postalinspectors.uspis.gov> or call 877-876-2455.

How can you tell if a sweepstakes is legitimate? Thankfully, most sweepstakes are legitimate and appropriate marketing devices. The Deceptive Mail Prevention and Enforcement Act, sometimes referred to as the “Sweepstakes Law,” helps safeguard consumers by placing certain requirements on companies that sponsor sweepstakes contests. At a minimum, sweepstakes sponsors are required to include these statements in their mailings:

- No purchase of a product or service is required to win, and a purchase won’t improve your chances of winning.
- Number, retail value, and complete description of all prizes.
- Name and business address where sponsor can be contacted.
- Entry procedures and eligibility requirements.
- Termination date for eligibility.
- Estimated odds of each prize.
- Winner selection method.
- Geographic restrictions for the offer.
- Approximate dates when winners will be selected and notified.

All required disclosures must be “clear and conspicuous” to consumers.

These tips can help protect you from becoming a victim in a sweepstakes scam. To learn more, visit our fraud education and prevention website at www.deliveringtrust.com.

The Postal Service wants you to learn how to protect yourself from fraudulent schemes, because being educated about fraud could keep you from losing thousands of dollars.

National Consumer Protection Week is the perfect opportunity to make an investment in yourself and your family by educating yourselves about the schemes that are lurking about, seeking to destroy everything you’ve worked so hard to build.

Whatever you do, don’t take this lightly. Don’t make the mistake of thinking that it can’t happen to you or that you’re too smart for this. It’s happened to the best of us. It can and it does happen to people just like you and me.

So, let’s do all we can to put scammers out of business. The only way to stop these crimes is through increased public awareness, education, vigilance, and aggressive law enforcement.

In closing, I’d like to take this opportunity to thank all of you — our customers — for your business and for trusting us with your mail. It’s truly a pleasure to serve you.

DMM Revision: Clarification of Pricing Eligibility for Standard Mail Saturation Flats

Effective March 3, 2014, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 343 and 602 to clarify that pricing for Standard Mail® saturation flats with simplified addresses is different than for saturation flats with specific delivery addresses.

Prices for commercially-entered Standard Mail saturation flats with simplified addresses are found in Notice 123, in the Standard Mail carrier route flats table under the column headed “Every Door Direct Mail®.” Prices for saturation flats with specific addresses are found under the column headed “saturation.”

IMM Correction: Minimum Weight for IPA and ISAL Mixed Country Price Groups

The article titled “IMM Revision: Changes to Pricing and Mailing Standards for International Shipping Services” in Postal Bulletin 22378 (12-12-13, pages 17–28 and 49–61) included many revisions that incorporated the mailing standards for the newly introduced shaped-based pricing for International Priority Airmail® (IPA®) service and International Surface Air Lift® (ISAL®) service, which became effective January 26, 2014.

However, in that article and in the edition of Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, International Mail Manual (IMM®) published January 26, 2014, the section about eligibility requirements for mixed country containers is inconsistent. Currently, IMM 292.233 and 293.233 state that mixed country containers must contain a minimum of 5 pounds of presort mail; however, IMM 292.471 and 293.471 state that each mixed country price group must contain at least 5 pounds of presorted mail that is separated by shape (letter-size, flat-size, and package-size items) and prepared in separate containers.

Accordingly, we are revising IMM 292.233 and 293.233 to stipulate that, for price groups 9–14, only an individual price group with a minimum of 5 pounds qualifies for the mixed country price.

In addition, we are revising 292.481 and 293.481 to distinguish the two 5-pound options when mailers prepare mixed country sacks for price groups 15–19.

Finally, we are revising the titles of IMM 292.483 and 293.484 to correctly indicate that each section concerns optional sack preparation for direct country sacks as well as mixed country sacks.

Claims Process Updates — Domestic and International

As follow-up to the January 23, 2014, Postal Bulletin (PB 22381) article “Claims Process Updates”, we are providing more information and guidance on domestic claims, international inquiries, and claims.

Effective January 26, 2014, the primary responsibility of Post Office™ employees for the claims process is the inspection of a damaged package. The local Post Office has no responsibility for claim processing or adjudication. See the table “International Inquiries and Claims” below for actions to be performed by customers for international inquiries and claims.

Post Office Actions

- Recycle all versions of the claim forms PS Form 1000, Domestic or International Claim, and PS Form 2855. Post Offices are no longer required to keep or use these forms. (Note: This is a correction to the January 23, 2014, Postal Bulletin article.)
- Ensure that Poster 122, Timelines for Domestic and International Claims, is displayed in the back office for employees to view. Do not display Poster 122 in the front lobby.
- Notify customers that they should file domestic claims online through <http://www.usps.com>. Customers without Internet access can contact the USPS® toll-free customer support at 800-ASK-USPS (800-275-8777) and request that a domestic claim form be mailed to them.

Damaged Package Inspection for Domestic and International

Actions required when customers bring their damaged item to the Post Office for damage inspection are as follows:

- The Postal Service employee completes PS Form 3831, Receipt for Article(s) Damaged in Mails.
- Once PS Form 3831 is completed, provide PS Form 3831 to the customer.
- In the back office, the Postal Service employee completes PS Form 2856, Damage Report of Insured Parcel and Contents. PS Form 2856 is an internal USPS form. Do not provide PS Form 2856 to the customer.
- Once PS Form 2856 is completed, mail PS Form 2856 and any other claim paperwork to the address on the form. For domestic claims, mail PS 2856 to St. Louis. For international claims, mail PS Form 2856 to the International Research Group in Los Angeles.

FAQs

Q. Do customers receive a confirmation after submitting a domestic claim online?

A. Yes, after successfully submitting a claim online (by completing all of the required fields), customers will first see a confirmation page. They can print this confirmation page for their records. Then, within one hour, the customer will also receive an email confirmation with the specific label number in the body of the email.

Q. Who can file a domestic claim?

A. For domestic claims, either the person sending the mailpiece (Mailer) or the person receiving the mailpiece (Addressee) may file a claim for a damaged or missing article (that includes insurance).

Q. What is required to file a claim?

A. To file a domestic claim, the customer must provide general information about the damaged or missing package, including the following:

- Article number (label or tracking number) on the package or label.

- Proof of value.
- Evidence of damage.

The customer has the ability to upload JPG or PDF files to Online Claims to provide evidence of insurance and proof of value.

Q. For domestic claims, should the addressee or the sender of the damaged package bring the package to his or her local Post Office?

A. The addressee should retain the damaged package, all contents, wrappings, packaging, etc., until he or she receives a letter from USPS instructing him or her to bring it to the Post Office for inspection. The addressee should not reship the package. Additionally, after the Post Office completes the inspection, the Postal Service should not return the package to the customer; the Post Office must retain the package.

Q. If a claim has been denied, what does the customer need to provide to file an appeal?

A. In the appeal, the customer should explain why the case should be reviewed. Also, the customer should include proof of value and evidence of insurance if not provided previously. Domestic appeals may be

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
  - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
  - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
  - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at <https://www.usps.com/shop/accepting-money-orders.htm>.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Inquiries may be sent to the Military Postal Service Agency at <https://amps.mpsa.mil/jy2/frm.htm>.

The entries under “Changes” appear in bold in the APO/FPO/DPO table starting below.

The G Fund is managed internally by the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board. Assets of the F, C, S, and I Funds are managed externally. The Board currently has contracts with BlackRock Institutional Trust Company, N.A., to manage the F, C, S, and I Fund assets. The F, C, S, and I Funds invest in commingled trust funds, in which the assets of tax-deferred employee benefit plans are combined and invested together. The F, C, S, and I Funds and the BlackRock funds are passively managed index funds.

Future performance of the funds will vary and may be significantly different from the returns shown above. See the Summary of the Thrift Savings Plan for detailed information about the funds and their investment risks. The monthly returns of the TSP Funds represent net earnings for the month after deduction of accrued administrative expenses and, except for the G Fund, after deduction of trading costs and accrued investment management fees as well. The returns for the four indexes shown do not include any of these deductions.

New Products and Innovations

New Metered Mail Price

With the price change effective January 26, 2014, the Postal Service™ implemented a new “meter price” for single-piece non-presorted First-Class Mail® letters. The meter price is available for any single-piece First-Class Mail letters with postage paid by meter, permit imprint, pre-cancelled stamps, business reply mail permit (BRM), or PC Postage®, including customized postage. It is available for single-piece First-Class Mail letter mail whether it is mailed at retail (dropped off at a retail counter or dropped into a blue USPS® collection box) or as a residual piece in a commercial mailing. The price for up to one ounce is 48 cents.

All existing requirements for single-piece mail remain unchanged. For Permit Imprint mailings, the minimum piece requirement of at least 200 pieces per mailing continues to apply.

As shown in the table below, the new price category is based on incremental weights up to 3.5 ounces and is one cent lower than the single-piece stamped machinable First-Class Mail letter price. Postal Service employees should not mark these pieces as postage due when they are one cent below the stamped price.

Note:

- The one cent difference between stamp and meter pricing is for First-Class Mail letters only; metered First-Class Mail cards and flats continue to have the same price as stamped First-Class Mail cards and flats.
- CPUs are required to charge the “stamp price” starting at 49 cents per piece when they meter pieces at a CPU.

Weight Not Over (ounces)	First-Class Mail Letter STAMP Price	First-Class Mail Letter METER Price
1	0.49	0.48
2	0.70	0.69
3	0.91	0.90
3.5	1.12	1.11

The new metered mail price was presented in the December 18, 2013 Federal Register Notice and the December 26, 2013 issue of the Postal Bulletin.

Stamp Announcement 14-13: Star-Spangled Banner Stamp

© 2013 USPS

On March 3, 2014, in Washington, DC, the U.S. Postal Service® will issue The Star-Spangled Banner First-Class Mail® stamp (Forever® priced at 49 cents), in one design. The formats available are a pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) booklet of 20 stamps (Item 689000), produced by security printer CCL Label, Inc. and Sennett Security Products (SSP), a PSA coil of 100 stamps (Item 789900), and an ATM sheetlet of 18 stamps (Item 587900) produced by security printer SSP.

The stamp will go on sale nationwide March 3, 2014.

This stamp commemorates the 200th anniversary of The Star-Spangled Banner with a photograph of the flag that flies over Fort McHenry National Monument and Historic Shrine in Baltimore. This flag is a replica of the one that inspired Francis Scott Key to write “The Star-Spangled Banner” after realizing Fort McHenry had withstood the British attack of September 13–14, 1814. The picture of the flag was taken against a backdrop of fireworks during an annual celebration of Defenders’ Day. Photographer Gary Clark said it was a challenge to get the fireworks and the flag in the same shot and that “the wind picked up quite a bit that night.” Art director Phil Jordan designed the stamp.

To learn more about the stories behind the stamps, visit <http://uspsstamps.com>.

Special Dedication Postmarks

Only the following pictorial postmark is permitted for The Star-Spangled Banner stamp. The word “Station” or the abbreviation “STA” is required somewhere in the design, because it will be a temporary station.

Guidelines for Finalizing The Star-Spangled Banner Stamp Pictorial Postmark Art

To finalize The Star-Spangled Banner stamp pictorial postmark art, insert the date, city, state, and ZIP™ Code of the physical location of your event adjacent to the stamp image. Overall dimensions of the pictorial postmark must not exceed 4 inches horizontally by 2 inches vertically. Collectors prefer the dimensions 3-1/2 inches by 1.

The Postal Service™ must make all special postmarks known to collectors through advance publicity in the Postal Bulletin. Therefore, all special dedication cancellations must be reported to Stamp Services four weeks before the events using PS Form 413, Pictorial Postmark Announcement/Report. To get a copy of the form, go to <http://blue.usps.gov/formmgmt/forms/ps413.pdf>.

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4® Code, as listed below.

How to Order the First-Day-of-Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first-day-of-issue postmarks by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24, or at The Postal Store® website at www.usps.com/shop.

Traditional Postmarks

Customers should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address them to themselves or others, or provide a self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage large enough to accommodate the canceled item. Mail the request to the corresponding city of issuance. There is no charge for the first 50 postmarks. There is a 5-cent charge for each additional postmark over 50. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service™ will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

All postmark requests should go to the first-day-of-issue city. The first-day-of-issue city Post Office will then forward in bulk all postmark requests to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992 by respective Post Offices.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as "laser safe." The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers should affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Mail the request for a first-day-of-issue digital color postmark to the corresponding city of issuance. Post Offices will then forward all customer requests for digital color postmarks to Cancellation

Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992.

After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

Sustainability

Standard Operating Procedure (SOP): Pharmaceutical Disposal

This SOP addresses the proper disposal procedures for pharmaceuticals that break open in the mail and cannot be rewrapped to forward to the intended customer. Section 691.521 of the Post Office Operations Manual (POM) requires drugs that are found in the mail that are undeliverable to the addressee or sender to be destroyed. The POM also authorizes the donation of over-the-counter drugs that are sealed in their original packaging or container to public and charitable organizations, local food banks, shelters, or other nonprofit organizations that will accept them or destroy them.

Turn over illegal drugs to the Postal Inspection Service. The POM does not address certain classes of pharmaceuticals that the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has determined are hazardous waste, nor does it address the proper handling of controlled substances regulated by the Federal Drug Enforcement Agency. This SOP applies to all Postal Service facilities that generate undeliverable pharmaceuticals and provides supplemental guidance on which pharmaceuticals must be disposed of as hazardous wastes.

Types of Pharmaceuticals in the Mail

The Postal Service™ regularly receives over the counter and prescription pharmaceuticals that become undeliverable when the packaging for those medications becomes damaged or broken in transit. When damaged pharmaceutical mailings cannot be rewrapped and sent to the addressee or sender, the Postal Service must destroy such medications.

The proper method of destruction depends on whether the pharmaceutical is a hazardous waste, a non-hazardous waste, and/or a controlled substance as defined by the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA). If pharmaceuticals that break open in the mail are not marked, and it is not possible to determine whether they are over the counter or prescription, then these items should be turned over to the Inspection Service.

Pharmaceuticals Considered Hazardous Waste

The EPA lists and regulates certain waste pharmaceuticals as hazardous wastes. Pharmaceuticals may also be considered hazardous if they have hazardous characteristics such as ignitability, corrosivity, reactivity, or toxicity. A pharmaceutical that is either listed as hazardous waste or has hazardous characteristics must be disposed of using one of the USPS-authorized hazardous waste contractors. Some common examples of prescription medicines that the EPA lists as hazardous wastes include warfarin > 0.3%, Epinephrine, Physostigmine, and many chemotherapy agents (see link under Key Websites for an expanded list).

All Postal Service facilities that must destroy hazardous pharmaceuticals must retain records of their disposal using the EPA's uniform hazardous waste manifest system and dispose of those pharmaceuticals using a USPS-approved hazardous waste contractor. Approved contractors can be found in eBuy2 at http://blue.usps.gov/purchase/eBuy2\_home.htm. Search catalogs under "Services" and type in the word "pharmaceuticals" to refine your search.

Pharmaceuticals Considered Controlled Substances

The DEA regulates pharmaceuticals defined as Controlled Substances. Controlled Substances must immediately be turned over to the U.S. Postal Inspection Service for proper handling and disposal as required by the DEA. Access the list of controlled substances at the DEA's website (see link under Key Websites). Some Controlled Substances could also be considered a hazardous waste. A partial list of pharmaceuticals that are subject to both regulations can be obtained by contacting the Office of Sustainability (see contact information under Key Websites).

Pharmaceuticals Governed by Additional State Pharmaceutical Regulations

Florida and Michigan allow hazardous pharmaceuticals to be managed as universal wastes using less restrictive management, tracking, and reporting standards. Postal Service facilities in Florida and Michigan are directed to comply with these universal waste regulations since they offer a less burdensome approach to pharmaceutical waste management. California and Washington also provide state specific regulations pertaining to pharmaceutical wastes that apply to Postal Service facilities in these states (see links under Key Websites). For example, nitroglycerin is generally exempt from federal hazardous waste regulations if it is no longer reactive; however, nitroglycerine is not exempt from California's hazardous waste regulations.

Pharmaceuticals Considered Solid Waste

Over-the-counter pharmaceuticals can be disposed of in the trash after they are properly destroyed according to FDA or EPA guidelines (see links under Key Websites). Responsible officials in the Postal Service should dispose of pharmaceuticals that are neither hazardous nor controlled substances as follows:

- Follow specific disposal instructions on the drug label, where available. Do not flush prescription drugs down the toilet unless the drug label indicates to do so.
- If no instructions are available on the drug label or the packaging, you can throw the drugs in the trash after determining that they are neither hazardous or a controlled substance and have been rendered unusable by the following actions:
  - Mix the drugs with an undesirable substance (e.g., coffee grinds, kitty litter, etc.)
  - Place the mixture in a sealed plastic bag before trash disposal.
