Cover Story

National Dog Bite Prevention Week, April 8–14, 2018

Sponsored by the U.S. Postal Service®, National Dog Bite Prevention Week is a public service campaign that offers safety tips and emphasizes the need for increased owner responsibility in the prevention of dog attacks.

From nips and bites to vicious attacks, aggressive dog behavior poses a serious threat to our employees. To emphasize the enormity of this issue, the Postal Service™ is reporting the number of dog attacks and bites together as the most prominent threat to carriers. Last year, 6,244 Postal Service employees were victimized by dogs.

The tools available in this kit and online will help promote the awareness of this public health concern in an effort to reduce the number of adverse interactions in local communities. Be sure to contact the field communications professionals listed in this kit when promoting this initiative.

Dog Bite Prevention Background and Tips

The Victims

- According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, about 4.5 million people are bitten by dogs each year. Over half of all dog bite injuries occur at home with dogs who are familiar with their victims.
- The American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA) reports that dog bite victims account for up to 5 percent of emergency room visits. As many as 800,000 people annually are admitted to U.S. emergency rooms with dog bite-associated injuries, and countless more bites go unreported and untreated.
- AVMA and the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) report that small children, the elderly, and letter carriers are the most frequent victims. Dog attacks are the most commonly reported childhood public health problem in the United States.
- Children are the most common victims of dog bites and are far more likely to be severely injured. Among children, the rate of dog bite-related injuries is highest for those 5 to 9 years old. Most dog bites affecting young children happen during everyday activities and while interacting with familiar dogs.
- In 2017, dog bites and other dog-related injuries accounted for over $100 million in liability claims paid by State Farm®. Over the past decade (2008–2017), State Farm has paid over $1 billion for dog-related injury claims, which is a 57 percent increase in the amount paid over the past decade.
- Last year, many attacks reported by letter carriers came from dogs whose owners regularly used the phrase, “My dog won’t bite.”

How to Avoid Being Bitten

- Don’t run past a dog. The dog’s natural instinct is to chase people who run.
- If a dog threatens you, don’t scream. Avoid eye contact. Try to remain still until the dog leaves, and then back away slowly until the dog is out of sight.
- Don’t approach a strange dog, especially one that’s tethered or confined.
- While letter carriers are discouraged from petting animals, people who choose to pet dogs should always let a dog see and sniff them before petting the animal.
- If a dog is about to attack, try to place something between yourself and the dog, such as a backpack or a bicycle.

How to Be a Responsible Dog Owner

- Obedience training can teach dogs proper behavior and help owners control their dog in any situation.
- When a letter carrier comes to the home, keep dogs:
 - Inside the house or behind a fence,
 - Away from the door,
 - In another room, or
 - On a leash.
- Dogs can be protective of their territory and may interpret the actions of letter carriers as a threat. Take precautions when accepting mail in the presence of your pet.
- Dogs that haven’t been properly socialized, receive little attention or handling, or are left tied-up for long periods frequently turn into biters.

[City Name] Post Office and [Local Animal Shelter] Lead the Parade for Dog Bite Prevention

[City] — They walk the streets of [City] every day, and Saturday, [Date] at [Time], [Your City] letter carriers are bringing friends and family along with them to deliver a very special message. The message they will deliver has received a lot of media attention lately, but it is one that letter carriers have been concerned about for decades. It is the need for the entire community to work together to avoid the cost and pain of dog bites.

Last year, 6,244 letter carriers were attacked by dogs. But that number pales in comparison to the more than 2 million children who received dog bite injuries in a single year.

“That’s why we’re coming out on a Saturday to deliver this important message,” says Postmaster [Postmaster Name]. “Several of our letter carriers know first-hand about both the prevention and the pain of animal attacks, and we want to do whatever we can to help educate the community — especially parents and pet owners.”

Letter carriers who are on the job after recovering from animal attacks will lead the parade and are available to talk about their experience. [Name of Health Care or Animal Protection Official] will join letter carriers along their route to talk about dog bite prevention and responsible pet ownership. A sample of some important facts that officials can share is attached. [Attach Dog Bite Prevention Background]

The parade route will be [Describe the parade’s route so reporters can catch up with you if they miss the beginning of the parade].

Public Service Announcement April 8–14 is National Dog Bite Prevention Week

The Postal Service offers three public service announcements (PSAs) for your consideration. Spring is here and more people and dogs will be on the street. This is the perfect time to participate in an education campaign aimed at reducing these painful and costly attacks.

For decades, the U.S. Postal Service has taken a leadership role in preventing animal attacks because letter carriers are the third most likely group to be bitten or attacked by a dog. Children and the elderly rank number one and two, respectively. You can find more information on the attached Dog Bite Prevention Background and Tips sheet. [Attach Dog Bite Prevention Background and Tips sheet]

Please join the Postal Service in this important public education campaign by using these PSAs and by interviewing Postal Service, animal protection and public health officials during National Dog Bite Prevention Week.

PSA 1

It's that time of year again, and the Postal Service, healthcare providers and animal protection professionals need your help. Last year, 6,244 letter carriers were bitten or attacked by dogs nationwide. But that pales in comparison to the more than 4.5 million people — most of them children and the elderly — who are bitten by dogs each year. You can help protect your letter carrier, meter reader, newspaper delivery person and neighbors' children by making sure your pet is properly restrained. Be a responsible pet owner. Help prevent the injuries and deaths caused by animal attacks. This message is a public service of this station and your local Post Office.

PSA 2

At this point in our nation's history, even the comedians know that "dog bites man" is no laughing matter. That's why the nation's letter carriers, who experienced 6,244 dog attacks last year, are reminding pet owners to restrain their dogs to protect letter carriers, meter readers, children and others who may come near their dogs. This message is a public service of this station and your local Post Office.

PSA 3

Pet owners, did you know that if your dog attacks a letter carrier, you could be held liable for all medical expenses and other costs, which can run into thousands of dollars? Don't think your fence is the only protection you need — especially if a letter carrier or delivery person must enter your yard. The Postal Service is not anti-dog, but rather pro-responsibility. Responsible pet ownership includes making sure your pet is properly restrained. Last year, 6,244 letter carriers were attacked while delivering the mail. Help your letter carrier deliver safely for you. This message is a public service of this station and your local Post Office.

Community Involvement

The postmaster is one of the key leaders in each community. Postmasters can use their influence to win support from other key leaders for the Postal Service campaign to reduce dog attacks. The suggestions in this section will help postmasters create cooperative campaigning for dog bite awareness.

Poster Contest

Sponsor a poster contest to get children involved in spreading the word about preventing dog attacks. Colorful posters from the contest are a great way to alert the public.

2018 Dog Bite Prevention Poster

Postmasters must display the poster on page 4 as follows:

- Use only a color image of the 2018 dog bite prevention poster. If you do not have a color printer, then have the poster printed at your district office. It is important that only color posters are displayed.
- Display the poster on community bulletin boards located in your PO Box lobby from April 8–14. Remove it from the bulletin board by April 15.
- Display the poster in the employees' area through August 25.
- Get postmasters and station managers to hang or display the poster on bulletin boards at local, high-traffic grocery stores.

Sample Postmaster Columns

Use the following sample columns to help spread the word about the Postal Service's efforts to protect letter carriers and children in the community. The message is that dog attacks are a serious matter and the public can help protect everyone by being responsible dog owners.

Place these columns on letterhead and distribute them to local newspapers. It's a good idea to personalize the articles with experiences from local Post Offices or communities. Contact local newspaper editors to propose running the column weekly for 3 weeks. Post copies of these columns on information boards as well.

Although the material is designed specifically for use during the spring, use it to build community awareness throughout the summer months.

Postmaster Column No. 1

"Children Suffer Most Dog Attacks," By [Name], Postmaster [City]

For every letter carrier bitten, hundreds of children suffer the pain and trauma of dog attacks. Whatever the reasons, dog attacks are a serious problem for the entire community, as Postal Service letter carriers experienced 6,244 dog attacks last year. That's an average of 21 dog attacks every delivery day, and does not include the number of threatening incidents that did not result in injury. However, these numbers are far less than the 4.5 million people — mostly children and the elderly — who suffer injuries from dog attacks each year.

In [City] last year, dogs bit [number] letter carriers and interfered with a significant number of mail deliveries [or you can estimate a number if possible]. Fortunately, most dog bites can be prevented through responsible pet ownership.

[If you did have dog attacks last year, use the previous paragraph and insert a paragraph or two here giving a few details, such as the seriousness of the incidents and the amount of lost time. If you had no dog attacks or cases of dogs interfering with mail delivery last year, omit the previous paragraph.]

If a letter carrier needs to deliver a certified letter or a package to you, put your dog into a separate room before opening your front door. Some dogs are strong enough to tear through screen doors or jump through plate-glass windows to get at strangers.

[Insert a letter carrier story here, if applicable.]

Nationally, the number of carriers attacked by dogs has declined over the years. This is because of greater cooperation from dog owners, stricter leash laws, and increased efforts to educate letter carriers and the public about dealing with the problem.

Our letter carriers are vigilant and dedicated, but we may be forced to stop mail delivery to an address where a letter carrier is threatened by a vicious dog. In some instances, Postal Service employees have sued and collected damages for dog attack injuries. Only dog owners can control their pets.

While some attribute attacks on letter carriers to dogs' inbred aversion to uniforms, experts say the psychology actually runs much deeper. Every day that a letter carrier comes into a dog's territory, the dog barks and the letter carrier leaves. Day after day the dog sees this action repeated. After a week or two, the dog appears to feel invincible against intruders. Once the dog gets loose, there's a good chance it will attack.

Dog owners should remind their children about the need to keep the family dog secured. The Postal Service also recommends that parents ask their children not to take mail directly from letter carriers. A dog may see handing mail to a child as a threatening gesture.

These simple reminders and helpful tips can reduce the hazard of dog attacks. Help us to help you this spring and summer.

This is the first in a series of three columns by [City] Postmaster [Name] addressing the problem of dog attacks, both in the Postal Service and in the community. Next week: "Why Do Some Dogs Attack?"

Postmaster Column No. 2

"Why Do Some Dogs Attack?" By [Name], Postmaster [City]

Would your dog attack? The American Veterinary Medical Association estimates that more than 4.5 million dog bites are reported to local authorities each year. Countless more go unreported.

Dog attacks can range from a relatively painless nip to a fatal mauling. Dog attack victims account for up to 5 percent of all hospital emergency room visits. Children are most often the victims. Dog attacks are the most commonly reported childhood public health problem in the United States.

Though many people may feel confident that their dog won't add to these statistics, they could be held liable for the victim's pain, suffering, and medical expenses from a dog attack. Potential victims may include letter/rural carriers and neighborhood children. There are several ways to avoid liability. Reducing the likelihood that your dog will ever bite someone helps protect you, your canine companion, and everyone else in the community.

Why Do Some Dogs Attack?

Lack of socialization, improper training, excitement, and fear can all contribute to a dog attack. Even a nip on the leg is unacceptable behavior for a family dog.

Help Take the Bite Out of Your Dog:

- Teach your dog appropriate behavior. Don't play aggressive games with your dog such as wrestling, tug of war, or "sicking" your dog on another person. It's essential that your dog recognize members of your family as dominant figures.
- Be a responsible pet owner. For everyone's safety, don't allow your dog to roam. Make your pet a member of your family. Dogs that spend too much time tethered to a dog house or in the backyard have a much greater chance of developing aggressive behavioral problems.

- Stay on the safe side. Help your dog become accustomed to a variety of situations. If you don't know how your dog will react to a new situation, be cautious. If you think your dog could panic in a crowd, leave him or her at home. If your dog may overreact to visitors or delivery people, keep him or her in another room.

This is the second in a series of three columns by [City] Postmaster [Name] addressing the problem of dog attacks, both in the Postal Service and in the community. Next week: "Protecting the Community."

Postmaster Column No. 3

"Protecting the Community," By [Name], Postmaster [City]

Last year, 6,244 letter carriers were attacked nationwide. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that nearly 2 percent of the American population is bitten by a dog each year, and most of the victims are children.

The most recent statistics from the 2012 U.S. Pet Ownership and Demographic Sourcebook states that there are 70 million dogs in the United States; 43,346,000 households own dogs in the U.S., which is about 36.5 percent of households.

Clearly, parents must never leave a defenseless infant with a dog and must make sure that older children know how to properly interact with a dog, along with any potential danger associated with handling a dog. It is also important to know that studies have shown that dogs are three times more likely to be involved in a biting incident if they have not been spayed or neutered.

The Humane Society of the United States (HSUS) has found that the breed of animal most commonly involved in dog attacks can change from year to year, and from one part of the country to another, depending on the popularity of the breed. According to the HSUS, while some breeds are more likely to bite, other factors like whether the animal has been spayed or neutered, and whether the animal has been properly socialized, safely confined, properly supervised, and humanely trained play great roles in a dog's tendency to bite. Dog owners can prevent serious injuries to others by realizing their important role in dog bite prevention.

This concludes a series of three columns by [City] Postmaster [Name] addressing the problem of dog attacks, both in the Postal Service and in the community.

*Postmaster SpeechDog Attack Prevention Speech for School Children

[Make the presentation light and fun. Even though this is a serious subject, children will respond to a friendly and approachable adult.]

Good morning boys and girls.

My name is [Name] and I'm your postmaster.

[Tell the children what a postmaster is/does.]

How many of you have dogs at home or have friends who own a dog? [Listen to responses.] Have you or any of your friends ever been bitten by a dog? [Listen to responses, and if so, add comment: "Well, I'll bet you didn't like it, did you?"]

At the Post Office where I work, the people who deliver your mail are occasionally bitten, too. That means that sometimes they have to go to the hospital and can't do their job for a long time. The dog's owner may have to pay a big hospital bill, and the mail may not be delivered to that house until the owners promise to keep the dog fenced in.

I don't want anybody at work to be attacked, and I don't want any of you to get attacked, either. That's why I'm here today, because I need your help.

First, I want all of you to be safe. Do you know how many people are bitten by dogs every year? [Children guess.] I heard some good guesses. The correct answer is 4.5 million people are bitten by dogs each year, and guess what? A lot of those people are children — and that's not good.

In fact, the attacks usually come from the family pet or from a dog owned by a neighbor. Can you believe it?

There are several things you can do to help out. Be nice to your dog and to all dogs. Don't tease them. Don't play roughly with them. Instead, teach your dog good manners. A trained dog is a happy dog. Remember to give dogs space when they are eating, sleeping, tired, sick, or caring for puppies. Remember: Dogs get cranky just like people, and they may bite if they are suddenly surprised or hurt. If you see a dog running loose in your neighborhood, tell your parents. Never, ever approach a strange dog.

You can also help your letter carrier, too. The most important thing is to stop your dog from getting outside and running loose. When you go outside, be sure to close the door behind you. When you are playing with your dog in the yard, be sure to close the gate so he or she does not get out.

When you see the letter carrier coming down your street, look around and make sure your dog is either inside or securely fenced away from the mailbox.

When the letter carrier gets to your house, let him or her put the mail in your mailbox. Never take the mail from the letter carrier because your dog might think he or she is a threat to you, even though we know that isn't true.

After the letter carrier has delivered the mail and gone, you still need to watch out for loose dogs. Never step too close to a strange dog. Even if the dog looks friendly, he or she might still bite.

I am going to give each of you a list of things you can do to help keep dogs from attacking your letter carrier, your friends, and yourself. I want you to take this list home and talk to your parents about it.

If you do that, your letter carrier won't have to worry about going to the hospital for a dog bite, and we can help ensure that everyone's mail is safely and quickly delivered.

Most importantly, we want you to be safe. So, please remember to take care of your dog and use good safety habits even around dogs you know. Don't be one of those 2 million children who experience the pain of a dog bite.

Thank you.

Dog Attack Prevention Tips for Mail Carriers — How to Help Prevent Dog Attacks

Remember these simple rules:

1. If approached by a dog, resist the impulse to scream and run away. Running will trigger a chase response.
2. Remain still, with hands at your sides and avoid eye contact with the dog.
3. Once the dog has calmed down, back away. Do not turn your back on a dog because a fearful dog may unexpectedly bite.

Be aware of your surroundings to protect yourself:

1. Stay alert at all times:
 - a. Observe the area carefully.
 - b. Take quick glances in common places dogs may be (e.g., under parked cars, under hedges, or on porches).
2. If you encounter a dog:
 - a. Never assume that a dog won't bite, even if it has been friendly in the past. Any dog can bite.
 - b. Always keep your eye on the dog. Dogs are more likely to bite when you aren't looking.
 - c. Never startle a dog. If it is asleep, make some kind of non-startling noise, such as a soft whistling or call its name if you know the dog. Do this before getting close to the dog, to ensure time and space for an "out." Never reach out and pet the dog.

- d. Stand your ground. Turn and face the dog. Hold something in front of you, like your satchel, and back away slowly to ensure you don't stumble and fall. Never turn and run!
 - e. Keep at least one full can of dog repellent spray within reach at all times. If a dog attacks, use the repellent to protect yourself. Make sure that the can is not expired before going on your route.
3. Use these preventative measures:
 - a. No one likes a surprise. If necessary, fill out a Dog Warning Card for your route.
 - b. The Postal Service can suspend delivery of mail to a residence because of violent dog behavior.

Remember: Safety Depends on You!

Dog Attack Prevention Tips for Mail Carriers and Children — How to Help Prevent Dog Attacks

To help make the neighborhood safe for carriers and other people, remember these simple rules:

1. Find out what time the carrier usually brings the mail.
2. When the carrier is due to visit, check to be sure your dog is inside. Keep the dog inside until the letter carrier is gone.
3. If someone needs to open the door to sign for a letter, first put the dog in another room and close the door.
4. If you have a mail slot, keep your dog away from the slot to ensure the carrier's fingers aren't bitten.
5. If your mailbox is inside a fenced yard and your dog is too, keep the dog on a leash away from the mailbox when your letter carrier delivers the mail.
6. When your dog is outside, never walk up to the letter carrier and ask for your mail. Your dog may think you are being threatened.
7. If you see a dog running loose in your neighborhood, tell your parents or report it to the proper authorities.
8. Never, ever approach a strange dog. Only approach a dog that is with his owner and on a leash.
9. When a strange dog comes near you, be BORING! Stand like a tree, or if you are on the ground, curl up your legs, cup your hands over your ears and lay still like a rock.
10. Don't go near a dog that is in a car, behind a fence, or tied up, even if you know him.

Information for Postal Managers

Progressive Warning Letters and Management Information

This section offers materials to help letter carriers safely perform their jobs. Use the progressive warning letters to alert dog owners to the possible loss of mail delivery if they do not restrain their pets. Also, don't forget to send a letter of thanks when they do!

Warning letters, like collection letters, need to be handled tactfully. The first and second sample letters on the website tell customers what to do. The third tells them the Postal Service has taken corrective steps. The fourth and fifth letters detail customer options. Keep in mind that the purpose is not to police the neighborhood, but to ensure a safe environment for carriers to do their work. Though most customers will respond to the first polite request, be sure to follow up if they don't. Management in associate offices can help drive down dog bites in the following ways:

- Verify that dog warning cards are placed in carrier cases for addresses with known dogs.
- Enter dog warnings into the Regional Intelligent Mail Server.
- Verify that carriers have dog spray and satchels at all times.
- Train carriers how to react to dog attacks using service talks and videos from safety resources.
- Provide sample dog letters for customers, dog bite prevention talks, and safety videos. These and other resources are available at safetytoolkit.usps.gov/
Resources:
 - Click A to Z Index.
 - Click Dog Bite Prevention.

Nondelivery of Mail Policy

The availability and use of dog repellent does not replace the nondelivery of mail policy where there is animal interference.

Collection and delivery service personnel must report the name and address of the customer where animal interference occurs to the postmaster or authorized supervisor, who must immediately telephone the customer and request that the animal is confined during the usual neighborhood delivery hours. The postmaster or authorized supervisor must further inform the customer that:

1. No deliveries will be made until this is done, and
2. Service will be restored once assurance has been given that the animal will be confined during regular delivery hours.

Dog Owner's Responsibility

It is the owner's responsibility to control his or her dog. Most communities have ordinances for the control of dogs. Though postmasters frequently request that customers control their dogs, and discontinue service, injuries still continue.

Additional Resources

In addition to this kit and online materials, a number of resources are available to help educate employees, customers, and the entire community about the importance of dog bite prevention. While the Humane Society of America is not an official partner during this year's National Dog Bite Prevention Week campaign, they are always willing to help organizations that promote safety around animals.

Dog bites are no laughing matter. Taking action can help reduce these costly and painful injuries. Stay alert and don't be fooled by "My dog won't bite."

Effective May 7, 2018, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®), sections 604 and 607, as stated in the notice of proposed rulemaking published December 13, 2017, in the Federal Register (82 FR 58580-58582). This notice amended the DMM in the following ways:

- Updated the definition of a revenue deficiency;
- Updated Postal Service contacts for submitting appeals; and
- Added sections to provide the definition of a mailer, description of assessments and mailer responsibilities, and policy on assessed revenue deficiencies.

Although the Postal Service will not publish these revisions in the DMM until May 7, 2018, the standards are effective immediately.

[Add new section 3.0 to read as follows:]

3.0 Revenue Deficiency

3.1 General Information

3.1.1 Revenue Deficiency Process

The revenue deficiency process outlined in 3.0 is an administrative process that supplements and does not diminish any rights the Postal Service has to recover revenue deficiencies through other legally available methods, such as when the deficiency arises as a result of fraud, misrepresentation, or the misuse of PC Postage products or other Postage Evidencing Systems.

sentation, or the misuse of PC Postage products or other Postage Evidencing Systems.

3.1.2 Definitions

Revenue deficiency definitions are as follows:

- a. Revenue deficiency: A shortage or underpayment of postage or fees that has been calculated and assessed to a mailer. Unless assessed under other applicable postal regulations, revenue deficiencies are generally assessed as provided herein by the postmaster; manager, Business Mail Entry; the program manager, Revenue and Compliance, or other postal official, who issues a written notification to the mailer citing the amount of the deficiency and the circumstances.
- b. Mailer: A mailer is defined as the mail owner or an individual or entity that prepares or presents a mailing to the Postal Service and includes those who allow others to use a postage meter or PC postage product (collectively “postage evidence system” — see 604.4.1.1 and 604.4.1.2) that has been authorized for use by the individual or entity.

3.1.3 Assessments

Postal officials review mailings, postage statements, and other relevant documentation to assess revenue deficiency. Mailers are required to cooperate and provide any documentation or information requested by postal officials during the review and assessment process. A mailer’s failure to provide requested documentation or information during a review may result in a negative inference concerning the documentation or information requested.

3.1.4 Assessed Revenue Deficiencies

Assessed revenue deficiencies may be subject to the following:

- a. If a mailer fails to tender payment to the Postal Service within 30 days of receipt of a final agency decision, fails to comply with the terms or conditions of a payment plan agreed to by the Postal Service concerning the final agency decision, or is suspected by the Postal Service of continuing to repeatedly short pay postage, the Postal Service may:
 1. Deduct any deficiencies from the mailer’s trust account (or any other funds in USPS possession) incurred within 12 months of the date of the final mailing on which the deficiency was assessed.

2. Initiate debt collection procedures.
3. Restrict or suspend discounted mailing privileges with the concurrence of the manager, Revenue Assurance and Vice President Controller, or as otherwise allowed by regulation, or in accordance with any agreement with the mailer.
- b. Discounted mailing privileges may be suspended or restricted regardless of payment status of an assessed revenue deficiency if underpayment of postage continues after a mailer has been assessed a revenue deficiency.
- c. Interest on assessed revenue deficiencies will accrue at a rate of 6 percent per annum beginning 30 days after the receipt of the final agency decision and will continue until the debt is paid.
- d. Other fees and costs related to an assessed revenue deficiency may be collected as allowed by law or regulation.

3.2 Appeal of Ruling

3.2.1 General Decision

Except as provided in 604.4.4.4 through 604.4.4.5, 607.3.2.2, and 703.1.0, a mailer may appeal a revenue deficiency assessment by sending a written appeal to the postmaster or manager in 3.2.1a through 3.2.1c within 30 days of receipt of the notification. In all cases, the mailer may be asked to provide more information or documentation to support the appeal. Failure to do so within 30 days of the request is grounds for denying an appeal. Any decision that is not appealed as prescribed becomes the final agency decision. Mailers may send appeals as follows:

- a. To the district manager, Finance, for revenue deficiencies for fees. The district manager, Finance, issues the final USPS decision.

- b. To the postmaster, manager, Business Mail Entry, program manager, Revenue and Compliance, or other postal official, for revenue deficiencies for postage. The appeal is then forwarded to the manager, Pricing and Classification Service Center (PCSC), who issues the final agency decision.
- c. To the manager, Product Classification (see 608.8.0 for address), if the PCSC manager first assessed the deficiency. The manager, Product Classification issues the final agency decision.

3.2.2 Nonprofit USPS Marketing Mail Decision

Nonprofit mailers have two levels of appeal. They may appeal revenue deficiency assessments as follows:

If the Initial Revenue Deficiency Assessment was made by:	First-Level Appeal	Second-Level Appeal and Final USPS Decision
postmaster; manager, Business Mail Entry; manager, Revenue and Compliance; or other Postal Service official	manager, PCSC (see 608.8.0 for address)	manager, Product Classification (see 608.8.0 for address)

All appeals must be submitted in writing within 30 days of the previous USPS decision. Any decision that is not appealed as prescribed becomes the final agency decision; no appeals are available within the USPS beyond the second appeal.

IMM Revision: Individual Country Listing for Iraq

Effective March 29, 2018, the Postal Service™ is revising Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, International Mail Manual (IMM®) to reflect changes to the Individual Country Listing (ICL) for Iraq.

As noted in the Universal Postal Union's International Bureau Circular 28, dated March 5, 2018, Iraq now accepts postal items containing cameras, mobile (cellular) telephones, and laptop computers.

Consequently, we will revise the list of Prohibitions in the ICL for Iraq by removing entries for those items, thereby indicating that they are no longer prohibited.

Invalid USPS Corporate Account Numbers

Provide this listing to Contract Postal Units and acceptance clerks in non-POS locations without intranet access to validate a USPS Corporate Account (USPSCA) number online. For all other locations, online USPSCA validation is preferred. This list supersedes all previous notices, which you must recycle.

Acceptance clerks must not accept Priority Mail Express® shipments bearing an invalid USPSCA number in the “Payment by Account” or “Agreement Number” section of the label or form.

Note: The first 6 digits of a 9-digit Custom Designed Service and Next Day Pickup Agreement make up the Corporate Account Number.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international Postal Service money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - When there is discoloration around the dollar amounts, this might indicate the amounts were changed.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at usps.com/shop/money-orders.htm.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks must use the table with the RSS terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Send inquiries to the Military Postal Service Agency at amps.usps.gov/jy2/frm.htm.

We have eliminated “Not Active” entries from the table below to save space and paper.

The G Fund is managed internally by the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board. Assets of the F, C, S, and I Funds are managed externally. The Board currently has contracts with BlackRock Institutional Trust Company, N.A., to manage the F, C, S, and I Fund assets. The F, C, S, and I Funds invest in commingled trust funds, in which the assets of tax-deferred employee benefit plans are combined and invested together. The F, C, S, and I Funds and the BlackRock funds are passively managed index funds.

Future performance of the funds will vary and may be significantly different from the returns shown above. See the Summary of the Thrift Savings Plan for detailed information about the funds and their investment risks. The monthly returns of the TSP Funds represent net earnings for the month after deduction of accrued administrative expenses and, except for the G Fund, after deduction of trading costs and accrued investment management fees as well. The returns for the four indexes shown do not include any of these deductions.

* Implemented May 2001.

Freely Associated States Restrictions

We list the mailing restrictions for Freely Associated States (FAS) in the Pull-Out section of the Postal Bulletin. All FAS Restrictions will be updated periodically.

Freely Associated States

Mail addressed to freely associated states is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The following FAS Restrictions table outlines these conditions as listed by each affected FAS ZIP Code™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions following the table). For more information on available extra services for FAS destinations, see Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®), part 503.

Acceptance clerks must use the table with the RSS terminal to determine which FAS ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Send inquiries to Randall Sobol at randall.f.sobol@usps.gov.

Forms

New PS Form 5956-MFP is Now Available

Effective January 2018, the Postal Service™ issued a new form, PS Form 5956-MFP, Management Foundations Program Probationary Period Report.

Previously, the Postal Service required individuals selected for the Management Foundations Program (MFP) to complete a 12-month probationary period. Their managers would then evaluate them using PS Form 5956-EAS, EAS Non-Supervisory Employee Probationary Period Report. The issuance of the new form does not affect the 12-month probationary period for MFP candidates, but managers must now use new PS Form 5956-MFP to evaluate each candidate.

New PS Form 5956-MFP is available on the Postal Service PolicyNet website:

- Go to blue.usps.gov.
- In the left-hand column under “Essential Links,” click PolicyNet.
- Click Forms.

The direct URL for the Postal Service PolicyNet website is blue.usps.gov/cpim.

Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement

The United States Postal Service® (Postal Service™) reaffirms its long-standing commitment to equality of opportunity in every aspect of employment. Equal employment opportunity (EEO) is not only a legal requirement under our nation's laws, but also a business imperative. EEO is a critical component of the Postal Service's efforts to recruit, develop, and retain the most qualified, diverse workforce to support our organization's strategic mission of delivering to every household in America.

It is the policy of the Postal Service that all employees and applicants for employment be afforded equal opportunities in employment without regard to race, color, sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, and gender identity, including transgender status), national origin, religion, age (40 or over), genetic information, disability, or retaliation for engaging in an EEO-protected activity. As part of its program of equal employment opportunity, the Postal Service prohibits discrimination or harassment based on any of these categories. In addition, it is also the policy of the Postal Service to prohibit discrimination or harassment based on marital status; status as a parent; and past, present, or future military service. All employees must refrain from practicing or tolerating discrimination or harassment.

Employees found to have taken actions that violate this policy and our country's EEO laws may be subject to corrective action up to and including removal from the Postal Service.

All of us, executives, managers, supervisors, and employees, share in the responsibility for successfully incorporating the Postal Service's policy on equal employment opportunity in every aspect of our duties and complying with this country's EEO laws.

Stamp Announcement 18-13: United States Air Mail Stamp

©2018 USPS

On May 1, 2018, in Washington, DC, the U.S. Postal Service® will issue the United States Air Mail stamp (Forever® priced at the First-Class Mail® rate) in one design, in a pressure-sensitive adhesive pane of 20 stamps (Item 477700). The stamp will go on sale nationwide May 1, 2018.

In honor of the 100th anniversary of the beginning of regular airmail service, the Postal Service™ will issue two stamps in 2018. The first stamp, issued May 1, commemorates the pioneering spirit of the brave Army pilots who initiated the world's first regularly scheduled airmail service. The stamp, rendered in blue and printed in intaglio, features a drawing of the type of plane typically used in the early days of airmail, a Curtiss JN-4H biplane. An identical stamp, printed in red, will commemorate the beginning of airmail delivery through the U.S. Post Office Department, which began in August 1918. The red stamp will be issued later this summer. Dan Gretta designed the stamps and was the typographer. Greg Breeding was the art director.

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears on the following pages. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark must affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4® Code, as listed next to the postmark.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

How to Order the First-Day-of-Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 or 120 days to obtain the first-day-of-issue postmarks by mail (check the dates by each postmark). Each cover must have sufficient postage to meet First-Class Mail® requirements. Customers may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by phone at 800-782-6724, or on The Postal Store® website at usps.com/shop.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as “laser safe.” The Postal Service™ recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16-inch side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2 inches high by 4 inches long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers must submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers must affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Address customer requests for digital color postmarks to:

FDOI – (Name of Stamp Issue)
USPS Stamp Fulfillment Services
8300 NE Underground Drive, Suite 300
Kansas City, MO 64144-9900

After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail®.
