Open Season is Coming

November 8 to December 13, 2021

The 2021 Open Season runs from November 8 to December 13, 2021. During the Open Season period, you can enroll in or make changes to your medical, dental, or vision coverage. You may also enroll in health and dependent care Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs). Unless you have a Qualifying Life Event during the remainder of the year, this is your once-a-year opportunity to make any changes to these benefits. By taking time to select your plan, you can be confident that you have the right coverage at the right price.

To help you select the right health plan, the Postal Service™ provides all employees and retirees with free access to CHECKBOOK's Guide to Health Plans for Federal Employees (liteblue.usps.gov/openseason). This online tool takes you through a few simple steps to find the best health plan for you and your family. Find every plan available to you ranked by estimated costs and more.

The Benefits and Wellness Team will host a Virtual Open Season Fair. The fair gives you an opportunity to visit healthcare carrier booths, attend webinars, and review health plan materials from your personal computer or mobile device. Representatives from Medicare, Social Security, Thrift Savings Plan, Employee Assistance Program, and colleges will be in attendance. Visit liteblue.usps.gov/openseason to sign up for the fair.

Understanding Types of Health Plans

Consumer-Driven Health Plans (CDHPs)

- Lower premiums.
- Higher deductibles.
- Most plans come with a pre-tax health reimbursement arrangement (HRA) to assist with costs.
- Ideal if you are healthy most of the time and rarely need health care services.
- Not ideal if you are managing a lot of healthcare expenses.

High Deductible Health Plans (HDHPs)

- Lower premiums.
- Higher deductibles.
- Most plans come with a pre-tax health savings account (HSA) to assist with costs.
- Consumers can choose physicians and providers.
- If you rarely go to the doctor, you can save more on your annual health care costs.

Health Maintenance Organizations (HMOs)

- In-network benefits only. Must use doctors that contract with health maintenance organizations.
- Visits to providers outside of network are typically not covered by insurance.
- Must have a primary care physician (PCP).
- Usually limited to a specific geographical area.
- Need a referral to see any other health care provider except in an emergency.

Preferred Provider Organizations (PPOs)

- Inside and outside of network benefits.
- In-network is paid at a higher benefit, which means the patient responsibility is lower. Out-of-network is paid at a lower benefit, which means the patient responsibility is higher.
- Flexible, as referrals and primary care physicians are not required.

9 Health Coverage Terms

Understanding the Basics

Premium The amount that must be paid for your health plan. USPS and you contribute biweekly for employees and monthly for retirees. 	Provider A physician, health care professional, or health care facility licensed, certified, or accredited as required by state law. 	Network The facilities, providers, and suppliers that your health plan contracts with to provide services.
Co-Payment A fixed amount you pay for a covered health care service usually when you receive the service. 	Deductible The amount you owe for health care services before your plan begins to pay. 	Co-Insurance You pay a percentage of the allowed amount for your health care service.
Allowed Amount The maximum amount on which payment is based for covered health care services. 	Out-of-Pocket Limit The most you pay during a policy period before your health plan begins to pay 100% of the allowed amount. 	Balance Billing Provider bills you for the difference between the provider's charge and the allowed amount.

Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA)

Use pre-tax dollars to cover eligible health and dependent care expenses.

Health Care FSA

- Covers health care expenses (for you and/or your family) that are not paid by your (or your spouse's) medical, dental, or vision plans, or by insurance.

Dependent Care FSA

- Covers dependent care expenses for children under age 13, such as preschool, daycare, babysitting, before or after school programs, and summer day camp, as well as for a spouse or relative who is physically or mentally incapable of self-care.

FSA Enrollment

- Current employees can sign up for an FSA at www.FSAFEDS.com during Open Season.
- New employees may enroll up to 60 days from their enter-on-duty date, but before October 1, or wait for Open Season.
- You must re-enroll every year to continue the benefits.

Reimbursement Options

- Pay Me Back (Direct Deposit) - Your reimbursement will be deposited directly into your bank account.
- Pay Me Back (Check) - A check will be mailed after a claim has been processed.
- Pay My Provider - Payment is sent directly to your provider.

Did You Know...

- The money you contribute to FSA is not subject to payroll taxes, so you pay less in taxes and take home more of your paycheck.
- FSAFEDS offers online tools to help calculate how much money you can save each year.
- For a list of eligible expenses, visit: www.fsafeds.com/support/eligibleexpenses

Effective February 25, 2021, customs regulations regarding the clearance of online orders addressed to an individual include the following updates:

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international Postal Service money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word "USPS" repeated.
 - When there is discoloration around the dollar amounts, this might indicate the amounts were changed.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at usps.com/shop/money-orders.htm.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Orderxxer Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks must use the table with the Retail System Software terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply.

The entries under “Changes” appear in bold in the following APO/FPO/DPO table:

Information Security

If You Care, Don't Share Information

For cybersecurity, some things are best kept a secret. Sharing information such as bank accounts, social security numbers, and tax records with a coworker is unthinkable; however, if you share your password you are essentially granting access to all that personal information.

Sharing passwords is not only dangerous — it goes against USPS® password policy. Failing to follow password policies puts the USPS network at risk and may result in disciplinary action. To learn more about USPS password policy, refer to Handbook AS-805, Information Security.

Here are a few important rules for keeping USPS passwords secure:

- Avoid using easily guessed associations (e.g., family names or birthdays).
- Passwords must be updated every 90 days or if you suspect your password has been compromised.
- Never share your password.
- Store your password in a safe and secure location.

For more information about how to create, store, and protect your password, visit the CyberSafe at USPS® pages on Blue (blue.usps.gov/cyber) and LiteBlue (liteblue.usps.gov/cyber).

Standing Up for Seniors

For 2020, cybercrimes against adults age 60 and older (in the U.S. alone) resulted in approximately $1 billion in losses — a 30 percent increase over losses reported for the previous year. Of the almost 800,000 complaints of cybercrime reported to the FBI's Internet Crime Complaint Center in 2020, more than 200,000 victims were over the age of 60.

Seniors are often targeted because they tend to be trusting and polite. They also usually have financial savings, own a home, and have good credit, which makes them attractive to scammers.

Chances are good that someone you know has been scammed. They may not talk about it, but the statistics are clear. Sharing what you know can help protect someone you know from a scam.

To protect yourself or a loved one from a targeted attack, share these cybersafe tips:

- Know the signs. if anyone contacts you and insists on payment by a wire transfer or gift card, it's likely a scam. End the conversation immediately.

- Share with care. Be cautious about providing too much personal information on social networking sites.
- Get USPIS® tips. The U.S. Postal Inspection Service offers tips on elder safety online, mail fraud, and other topics. Visit uspis.gov/older-americans for more information.
- Report scams. if you believe you or someone you know may have been a victim of elder fraud, contact your local FBI field office or submit a tip online. You can also file a complaint with the FBI's Internet Crime Complaint Center.

By sharing these tips with coworkers and loved ones, you can help further our mission to defend USPS® from cyberthreats, while protecting your family from scammers.

For more information about senior scams, visit the CyberSafe at USPS® pages on Blue (blue.usps.gov/cyber) and LiteBlue (liteblue.usps.gov/cyber).

Safety and Health

Slip, Trip, and Fall Prevention Deserves Your Attention

Hazards such as uneven surfaces or distracted walking can pose a serious threat to Postal Service™ employees. Last year, the United States Postal Service® reported over 16,000 Postal Service employees were victims of a slip, trip, or fall.

To bring awareness to this issue, USPS® is sponsoring National Slip, Trip, and Fall Prevention Week, a public service campaign that offers safety tips and emphasizes the impact that slip, trip, and fall incidents have on employees, customers, and the organization. USPS National Slip, Trip and Fall Prevention Week runs November 15–19, 2021, and this year's theme is "Slip, Trip, and Fall Prevention Deserves Your Attention."

Last year, most slip, trip, and fall incidents involved mail carriers. They tripped stepping onto a curb or uneven sidewalks, slipped on wet surfaces and fell because they missed steps exiting vehicles, didn't use handrails on stairs, or stepped into a hole in a customer's yard. The common factor in all these accidents was inattention, and almost half of the injuries resulted in at least one day away from work. The following tips can help prevent these incidents:

- Wear proper footwear. Choose high-traction, slip-resistant footwear.
- Stay away from wet leaves, slippery surfaces, or icy areas, whenever possible. Shorten your steps and shuffle your feet when near slippery surfaces.
- Be alert. On the work room floor or out on the route, things change quickly. Always remain focused, alert, and ready to react to the conditions in front of you.
- Where available, use handrails or other stable supports. Holding on to something keeps you steady when ascending and descending stairs.
- When entering and exiting vehicles, keep one hand on the vehicle or grab bar, so you can catch yourself if you start to slip.
- Never carry a load when you can't see over the top.

Housekeeping is also important for preventing slips, trips, and falls:

- Keep walkways, aisles, and stairs free of tools, materials, and other hazards.
- Keep cords, power cables, and air hoses out of walkways.
- Keep the floor clear of trash and plastic straps.
- Block off and mark floors or areas that are being cleaned or repaired.
- Promptly clean leaks or spills on floors, stairs, entryways, and loading docks.

When it's raining or snowing, wipe your shoes thoroughly on the doormat. Floor mats can keep floors dry by removing moisture and soil from footwear; however, improper or poorly maintained mats can pose a hazard and cause falls or other types of accidents. As a preventative measure, use these essential floor mat safety practices:

- When inspecting mats (particularly lightweight mats), ensure they are not aged, worn, or improperly placed.
- Make sure mats are lying flat against the floor without curls, ridges, or puckering.
- Mats near doors must align with the door threshold and cover the width of the door opening.
- Mat colors must contrast with the color of the floor for high visibility. Poor visibility may increase the tripping hazard.
- Make sure the mats are slip-resistant under all foreseeable conditions.

Falls from standing on chairs or other unauthorized surfaces can also cause injuries that are easily prevented:

- Make step stools readily available.
- Always use an approved step stool or ladder instead of a chair or table.
- Do not place the step stool on a desk or other unstable surface. Place the step stool on a firm surface and make sure it is fully open.
- Check the rated weight capacity of the step stool or ladder before using it.
- Move step stool or ladder close to your work instead of leaning or reaching to the side.

Employees must be diligent about examining their path and work area for hazards. Report hazards to your supervisor using PS Form 1767, Report of Hazard, Unsafe Condition, or Practice. Supervisors can be proactive in preventing slips, trips, and falls by documenting unsafe practices and conditions, while conducting employee observations and removing reported hazards.

USPS National Slip, Trip and Fall Prevention Week is coming to a facility near you. Occupational Safety and Health will provide accident and injury prevention resources to help eliminate slip, trip, and fall hazards. For more information, visit the Safety Resource Tools at blue.usps.gov/hr/safety/slips-trips-falls-2.htm.

A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears on the following pages. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. How to Order the First-Day-of-Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 120 days to obtain the first-day-of-issue postmarks by mail. Each cover must have sufficient postage to meet First-Class Mail® requirements. Customers may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by phone at 844-737-7826, or on The Postal Store® website at usps.com/shop.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as "laser safe." The Postal Service™ recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16-inch side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2 inches (vertically) by 4 inches (horizontally). Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers must submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers must affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Address customer requests for digital color postmarks to:

After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail®.

Traditional Postmarks

United States Postal Inspection Service

Honor Those Who Have Served by Being Informed About Scams Targeting Veterans

November 11 is Veterans Day — a time to pause and honor all those who have served and are serving in our nation's military. The Postal Inspection Service and its Operation Protect Veterans campaign (see uspis.gov/veterans) are encouraging everyone to become informed about scams targeting veterans and spread the word to protect them.

According to a survey by AARP, veterans are twice as likely as members of the general public to be victims of scams. "Scammers are very good at what they do. They know that service members share a special bond and have special benefits related to their service, and they are constantly recycling old scams and taking advantage of current circumstances — such as COVID-19 — to create new scams to steal veterans' hard-earned dollars," said Postal Inspector and Marine Corps veteran Carroll Harris.

Some of the scams targeting veterans include:

- Romance scams. Veterans and active-duty service members are tempting targets for "catfishing" romance scams. Scammers will use a picture of a service member posted online and create fake dating profiles to lure unsuspecting singles into giving up personally identifiable information and money.
- Veterans Administration (VA) loan scams. Scammers offer to refinance VA loans at extremely low rates in an attempt to collect personal information or fees.
- Update your file scam. An imposter, claiming to be from a government agency, attempts to get a veteran's personal information by "updating their file" to maintain their benefits.
- Secret veteran benefits scam. Veterans are told they qualify for "secret" government programs or benefits that offer thousands of dollars — but first, the scammers attempt to collect personal information or fees.
- Pension poaching scam. Scammers offer veterans lump sum payments upfront, in exchange for signing over their future monthly benefit checks.
- Aid and attendance scam. Veterans (or their family members) receive an offer to move their assets into a living trust so they can qualify for financial assisted-living benefits.

What can veterans do to protect themselves?

- Don't let anyone pressure you to take action. If you are dealing with a legitimate organization, they won't pressure you to act before you have had a chance to check information or think about it. If they do, just say "no" and hang up.
- Don't give anyone you don't know well your personal information. This includes bank account numbers, credit card numbers, and your Social Security number.
- Ask to see it in writing first. Ask anyone soliciting you for money to send the details in writing. This will give you a chance to review the offer before taking action.
- Ask a trusted family member or friend. Talk to a trusted relative or friend about any offers before taking action. They'll help you make an informed decision.
- Do your homework. Check out any offer by contacting the following resources:
 - The AARP FraudWatch Hotline,
 - Your state's attorney general's office,
 - The Better Business Bureau, or
 - Your local Veterans Affairs office.

You can also get credible information on how to qualify for veterans' benefits by contacting your state Veterans Affairs agency. Visit nasdva.us, then click Links.

If you or a veteran you know believe you have been an unwitting participant in a scam, protect other veterans by reporting it:

- Contact your local police station.
- Call AARP at 877-908-3360 or send an email to www.protectveterans@aarp.
- Call the U.S. Postal Inspection Service at 877-876-2455 or file a report at uspis.gov/report.
