Cover Story

Love Your Back: Learn to Lift Safely

Recent data indicates that the most frequently injured body part is the back because of lifting and carrying on the job. That is why the United States Postal Service® encourages employees to apply safe lifting practices to their daily tasks. When discussing how to prevent back injuries, the main thing to remember is that these problems are much easier to avoid than to fix once the damage is done.

Here are some lifting methods employees can use to help prevent back injuries:

- Reduce or eliminate the need for manual material handling. Can you accomplish the same manual task with the use of a mechanical aid?
- Use pallet lifters and container tilters to help bring the load higher and closer, which reduces back-bending while lifting.
- Place parcels or mail trays on elevated surfaces to keep them off the floor.

- Use a cart or hand truck to lift and transport heavy loads.

If lifting objects cannot be avoided, follow these best practices:

- Never place objects on the floor in the first place.
- Reduce the distance objects must be lifted by staging and storing everything above knee height or, ideally, at about waist height.
- When you must lift an object:
 - Let your legs do the work and avoid bending the back.
 - Never twist your back or move side-to-side while lifting.
 - Keep the load close to your body when lifting and carrying.
 - Get help from a coworker if an object is too heavy or bulky to manage alone.

The wrong way to lift an object.

The correct way to lift an object.

Using precautionary methods such as these establishes good lifting habits and helps prevent downtime from avoidable back injuries both on and off the job.

For more information about proper lifting practices, see Publication 129, Safety Talks, at blue.usps.gov/cpim/ftp/pubs/pub129/pub129_ch10_001.htm#ep1163528 and blue.usps.gov/cpim/ftp/pubs/pub129/pub129_ch10_002.htm.

CyberSafe Mobile Device Security: FY 2022 Courses Due by June 6

Threats to digital information are growing in frequency and sophistication worldwide. Protecting USPS® employee, customer, and supplier data from these threats is a priority for the Postal Service™. Everyone has a role to play in protecting this data.

It's time for employees and contractors who have USPS-issued mobile devices to do their part to protect critical data by completing mandatory, annual CyberSafe Mobile Device Security training. This training is due by June 6, 2022.

This year, the training course offers employees the ability to “test out” of the course or individual topics. The pretest, which covers the two topics in the training — Data Protection and Application Use and Security — allows users to skip the content they already know and review the content for which they need a refresher.

Based on the pretest results, one, both, or none of the topics will be presented for review. Complete the identified content (if any), take the end of course assessment (if required), acknowledge the course, and the course requirement is fulfilled.

By taking the FY 2022 CyberSafe Mobile Device Security training course this year, employees will learn the proper security measures for using their postal-issued smart mobile devices. This course also provides users with policy information, best practices, and tools available to them to assist in securing their devices.

Employees and contractors who have USPS-issued smart mobile devices can access the course now through HERO at usps.csod.com.

Emerging Mobile Threats: Smishing and Vishing

Smishing and vishing are new forms of cyberattack, and they threaten millions of Americans daily. In 2020, according to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, these attacks cost Americans more than $50 million, and those costs are expected to rise significantly.

Both smishing and vishing are forms of phishing; however, smishing scams are conducted via text messaging. Crafty phishers send texts appearing to be from trusted senders, such as banks and online retailers. These messages typically contain URLs or links that trick recipients into visiting websites that download viruses and other forms of malware onto the victim's mobile device.

Vishing — a combination of the parts of the words “voice” and “phishing” — is the telephone version of phishing. This technique uses a spoofed caller ID to make attacks look like the call originates from a known number or perhaps an 800-number that might compel you to answer the phone.

Avoid smishing and vishing scams and keep the USPS® network secure with these tips:

- Do not click. Do not open any link or attachment from a telephone number you do not have saved in your contacts list or from a sender you cannot verify.
- Filter messages. Filtering unknown senders will block notifications from unsaved phone numbers, which decreases the likelihood of falling for a smishing scam. To filter unknown numbers, follow these steps:
 - Apple users: Go to Settings > Messages and toggle on the “Filter Unknown Senders” option. This will create a new tab in your Messages app called “Unknown Senders.”
 - Android users: Go to Settings > Spam Message Settings and select the “Block Unknown Senders” option.

For more information about smishing and vishing, visit the CyberSafe at USPS® pages on Blue (blue.usps.gov/cyber) and LiteBlue (liteblue.usps.gov/cyber).

Stamp Services

Stamp Announcement 22-21: $2, $5 Floral Geometry Stamps

©2022 USPS

On June 20, 2022, in Kansas City, MO, the United States Postal Service® will issue the $2 and $5 Floral Geometry definitive stamps in one design each. The $2 Floral Geometry stamp will be issued in a pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) pane of 10 stamps (Item 121900). The $5 Floral Geometry stamp will be issued in a PSA pane of four stamps (Item 122000). Both stamps will go on sale nationwide June 20, 2022.

$2 Floral Geometry lends an elegant and contemporary appearance to packages, large envelopes, and other mailings. The stamp art features a series of overlapping geometric shapes that mimic the symmetry of floral patterns found in nature. The $2 stamp will be issued in panes of 10. $2 Floral Geometry is one of two similarly designed, high denomination stamps issued in 2022.

The other stamp, $5 Floral Geometry, features a similar series of overlapping geometric shapes in floral patterns found in nature; however, as the stamp denominations rise, the designs become more complex. The watercolor backgrounds and foil-stamped designs and typography create a sophisticated look. The $5 stamp will be issued in panes of four.

The $2 and $5 Floral Geometry stamps were designed and created by the firm Spaeth Hill. Antonio Alcalá was the art director.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international Postal Service money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - When there is discoloration around the dollar amounts, this might indicate the amounts were changed.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at usps.com/shop/money-orders.htm.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Ordxxer Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks must use the table with the Retail System Software terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply.

The entries under “Changes” appear in bold in the following APO/FPO/DPO table:

The G Fund is managed internally by the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board. Assets of the F, C, S, and I Funds are managed externally. The Board currently has contracts with BlackRock Institutional Trust Company, N.A., to manage the F, C, S, and I Fund assets. The F, C, S, and I Funds invest in commingled trust funds, in which the assets of tax-deferred employee benefit plans are combined and invested together. The F, C, S, and I Funds and the BlackRock funds are passively managed index funds.

Future performance of the funds will vary and may be significantly different from the returns shown above. See the Summary of the Thrift Savings Plan for detailed information about the funds and their investment risks. The monthly returns of the TSP Funds represent net earnings for the month after deduction of accrued administrative expenses and, except for the G Fund, after deduction of trading costs and accrued investment management fees as well. The returns for the four indexes shown do not include any of these deductions.

* Implemented May 2001.

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears on the following pages. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark must affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4® Code, as listed next to the postmark.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

How to Order the First-Day-of-Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 120 days to obtain the first-day-of-issue postmarks by mail. Each cover must have sufficient postage to meet First-Class Mail® requirements. Customers may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by phone at 844-737-7826, or on The Postal Store® website at usps.com/shop.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as "laser safe." The Postal Service™ recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16-inch side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2 inches (vertically) by 4 inches (horizontally). Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers must submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers must affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Address customer requests for digital color postmarks to:

To Buy Green is to Know Green

You have probably heard the terms “buy green” or “green purchasing,” but what do they really mean? The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) defines green purchasing as the purchase of products or services that have a reduced effect on the environment and human health when compared with competing products or services.

Green purchasing, more properly referred to as environmentally preferable purchasing (EPP), isn’t always easy. That is why the Postal Service™ has developed specific guidance on what products are considered environmentally preferable:

- Products made of recycled materials from post-consumer sources.
- Products made of renewable bio-based materials (i.e., USDA BioBased or BioPreferred products).
- Products that are energy efficient (i.e., Energy Star, UL Energy Efficient, NEMA Premium Efficient qualified products).
- Products that are water efficient (i.e., EPA WaterSense certified).
- Products that are ecolabel certified by a reputable third-party organization (i.e., GreenSeal or EcoLogo).

Examples include retread tires, recycled antifreeze, re-refined oil, recycled content paper, non-hazardous aqueous parts cleaning solutions, and bio-based adhesives. USPS® has had a long-term policy in place (since 1995) to avoid purchasing products that contain the USPS 13 targeted chemicals, EPA priority chemicals, and ozone depleting substances (Class I and II).

Details for this can be found in the following publications:

- MMO-013-19, Pollution Prevention and Waste Minimization at mtsc.usps.gov/pdf/mmo/2019/mmo01319.pdf.
- MMO-112-18, USPS Targeted Chemicals List at mtsc.usps.gov/pdf/mmo/2018/mmo11218.pdf.

To learn more about what certifications, ecolabels, and EPP criteria apply to green products, refer to the USPS Green Purchasing Guide at blue.usps.gov/sustainability/environmental-preferable-products.htm.

To “buy green,” consider these six factors:

- Recycled content. Products that contain high levels of post-consumer recycled materials have less of an impact on the environment. Post-consumer recycled materials are obtained from discarded consumer products. For example, if you buy copy paper, choose a minimum of 30 percent post-consumer recycled content paper.

- Bio-based materials. Natural bio-based materials, such as vegetable-based hydraulic oils or soy-based adhesives are known as “USDA BioPreferred.” These products use renewable resources and contribute to the reduction of adverse effects on the environment and human health.
- Energy efficiency. Purchase energy-efficient equipment and appliances whenever possible. Look for the ENERGY STAR logo when buying appliances, lighting, and new equipment.
- Water efficiency. When replacing old faucets and toilets, look for products bearing the EPA WaterSense label. These products are certified to perform as well or better than their less efficient counterparts and are 20 percent more water efficient than average products in that category. This means measurable water savings.
- Ecolabel certified. Consider choosing products that have been independently certified by a reputable third-party organization. As part of the USPS Green Purchasing Program, there are over 28 reputable Ecolabels in this category that apply to the products commonly purchased by the Postal Service.
- Non-toxic materials. You should avoid buying products containing toxic or hazardous materials. If the product you’re considering contains one or more of the Postal Service’s 13 chemicals targeted for elimination or EPA’s 31 priority chemicals, don’t buy it. Increase your knowledge of the chemicals in the products you buy by reviewing Safety Data Sheets (SDSs). If the product you want contains a targeted chemical, look for an alternative product.

If you are using eBuy+ to buy products, the first five EPP categories listed here are included as part of the product profile — suppliers have checked off each category that applies. This can help you make informed choices. Visit the supplier’s website to review the SDSs to determine how well the product meets EPP criteria before you submit your order.

Also, look for items that are reusable or refillable, and do not use an excessive amount of packaging. Whenever you buy a product or service, remember that less is more. Less product, less waste, less toxicity, fewer raw materials, and reduced energy and water use is always preferred.

Maintenance Management Order

SUBJECT: Pollution Prevention and Waste Minimization

DATE: January 15, 2019

TO: All Maintenance Capable Offices
Area Office, Manager Maintenance Support

NO: MMO-013-19

FILE CODE: M
rbla:mm19013ab

This Maintenance Management Order (MMO) supersedes MMO-101-08 and describes Postal Service pollution prevention (P2) policies and internal resources that should be used to save money, reduce waste generation, and create a safer and healthier work environment. This bulletin applies to Acronym ADMIN and Class Code AA.

Since 1992, it has been Postal Service policy to prioritize ways to prevent pollution and reduce waste. Pollution prevention requires "source reduction" and other practices that reduce or eliminate the creation of pollutants. "Source reduction" means any practice that:

- Reduces the amount of hazardous materials or contaminants in wastes that are generated or otherwise released into the environment (including emitted into the air) prior to recycling, treatment, or disposal; and
- Reduces the hazards to public health and the environment associated with such materials/contaminants.

In addition to preventing pollution at the source, it is also the policy of the Postal Service to minimize waste by means of reuse or recycling. Remember to REDUCE, REUSE, and RECYCLE. Table 1 shows the complete waste management hierarchy adopted by the USPS:

Table 1. USPS Waste Management Hierarchy

Source Reduction = P2	Most Preferred ↑ ↓ Least Preferred
Waste Minimization = Reuse & Recycling
Energy Recovery = Waste to Fuel
Waste Treatment
Disposal

Source reduction activities include the use of environmentally preferable products (green purchasing), inventory management, and process modifications. To comply with USPS P2 policies, facility maintenance staff should:

1. Seek opportunities to prevent pollution and waste by identifying and purchasing safer, less toxic/hazardous Environmentally Preferable Products (EPPs);
2. Review Safety Data Sheets (SDSs) prior to purchasing chemical products to avoid purchasing products containing USPS Targeted Chemicals; and
3. Review processes and practices that generate waste at their facilities to identify opportunities to conserve resources and eliminate waste.

The Office of Sustainability has developed several P2 resources and tools to assist with implementation of the Postal Service P2 policies discussed above. These resources include the Green Product Advisory Bulletins, Green Purchasing Guide, Waste Minimization Advisory Bulletins, P2 Economic Assessment Tool, and eBuy2 environmentally preferable product (EPP) features. Refer to the Attachment for more information about these resources and integrating P2 into daily maintenance activities.

GUIDANCE FOR INTEGRATING P2 INTO DAILY MAINTENANCE ACTIVITIES

1.0. GREEN PURCHASING

1.1. ENVIRONMENTALLY PREFERABLE PURCHASING

Environmentally preferable products (EPPs) are those products that have a reduced effect on human health and the environment when compared with competing products or services that serve the same purpose. Environmentally preferable purchasing is not only an effective means to prevent pollution from being generated, but is also a requirement under Section 6002 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act and Executive Order 13834.

Facility maintenance staff should consider the environmental impacts along with traditional factors, such as price, performance, and safety, when purchasing products. In many cases, environmentally preferable products can provide the best overall value to the USPS when a more comprehensive assessment of cost factors is completed. For more information about green purchasing, refer to the green purchasing webpage on the Office of Sustainability website.

To assist you with this effort, thousands of environmentally preferable products have been identified and included in eBuy2 for purchase. Environmentally preferable products (EPPs) in eBuy2 are marked with a green leaf icon.

The green leaf icon identifies products with environmentally preferable qualities:

1. Recycled content
2. Bio-based materials
3. Energy efficient
4. Water efficient
5. Ecolabel certified by reputable organizations (examples include Green Seal and ECOLOGO as defined in USPS green purchasing webpage)

Once you identify a product with a green leaf icon, look at the bottom of the product description page in eBuy2 to see environmentally preferable attributes for that product. Additional details about the product's environmental attributes can be found by following the link to the supplier's website.

Read the USPS Green Purchasing Guidance for a more complete understanding and overview of the Postal Service's Green Purchasing Program.

1.2. CHEMICAL COMPOSITION OF PRODUCTS

It is important to understand how the chemicals in the products we use in the workplace affect human health and the environment. Certain chemicals are heavily regulated by the US Environmental Protection Agency (EPA or USEPA) based on their prevalent use in industry and their known adverse impacts to human health and the environment. The EPA has specifically defined the 31 priority pollutant chemicals they are most concerned about, and the USPS has targeted 13 chemicals to avoid and eliminate where possible.

While most of these chemicals are not in the products used by the Postal Service, they are included here to avoid the inadvertent future purchase of any products with these listed hazardous chemicals. When USPS employees buy chemical products with these hazardous chemicals they can significantly increase waste management costs and add risks and liabilities that could result in unintended consequences. Use of these chemicals can be reduced by eliminating processes that require them or by finding and using less hazardous alternative products that do not contain these chemicals. Go to the USPS Green purchasing webpage for a complete list of the USPS 13 Targeted Chemicals and the USEPA 31 Priority Chemicals.

It is important to note that the green leaf logo used in eBuy2 is not an indication that a product is free of USPS targeted chemicals or the EPA priority chemicals. It is the responsibility of each person ordering products in eBuy2 and via any other means to check the chemical composition of that product. All chemical products used in a postal owned or operated facility should be accompanied by a Safety Data Sheet (SDS). Prior to purchasing products, buyers should carefully review Section 3 – Composition of the SDS to insure that the product does not contain targeted chemicals. In addition, any products available through eBuy2 catalogs that contain any targeted chemicals should be reported to the Contracting Officer's Representative of that contract.

It is also important to remember that it is the policy of the USPS to not purchase products containing Class I and II Ozone Depleting Substances (ODSs) (refer to USPS Handbook AS-552, Pollution Prevention Guide). The purchase of ODSs for existing heating, ventilation, and air conditioning (HVAC) systems and the scheduled phase out of these chemicals is covered in detail in the Environmental Compliance Update Changes to Refrigerant Management Requirements.

1.3. GREEN PRODUCT ADVISORY BULLETINS

Green Product Advisory Bulletins (GPABs) have been developed as tools to aid facilities in the identification of environmentally preferable products available in eBuy2 and to provide guidelines for the use and purchase of products obtained from other sources.

Products identified in the GPABs as environmentally preferable products:

- Do not contain any of the 13 USPS Targeted Chemicals, and
- Do not contain the 31 EPA Priority Chemicals, and
- Do not have the hazardous characteristics of ignitability, corrosivity, reactivity, and toxicity, as defined in the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA).

A series of GPABs have been developed for internal postal employee use and can be found on the Green Product Advisory Bulletins webpage.

1.4. INVENTORY MANAGEMENT

Installation heads should avoid keeping more material on hand than is needed. An excess of materials increases the potential for waste generation as materials exceed their shelf life or become obsolete and must be disposed. It also limits the availability of financial resources to purchase other products. Inventory information can be utilized to identify potential source reduction measures and to quantify the success of pollution prevention programs. Handbook AS-701, Asset Management, provides policy for inventory management in the Postal Service.

1.5. PROCESS MODIFICATION

New or modified equipment and process modifications can conserve energy and reduce the generation of waste at the source of the operation. Installation heads can reduce pollution by upgrading old equipment or revising methods of operation. Facility maintenance staff should review the processes and practices that generate waste at their facilities and look for opportunities to conserve resources and eliminate waste.

Examples of process modifications:

- Using non-hazardous solvents in parts washers that can reduce the generation of hazardous and/or regulated waste.
- Using High Volume Low Pressure (HVLV) or Low Volume Low Pressure (LVLP) spray paint guns, which significantly reduces the fugitive emissions of Volatile Organic Compounds (VOCs) and the amount of waste generated during painting; and
- Reducing the frequency or eliminating steps in processes that generate waste when they are not necessary or provide little to no benefit.

1.6. POLLUTION PREVENTION ECONOMIC ASSESSMENT TOOL

The selection of a particular pollution prevention practice should be based on individual facility processes and needs, types of waste generated, and life-cycle costs from acquisition through disposal. To help everyone in the Postal Service make informed decisions about ways to prevent pollution, the USPS Office of Sustainability has developed the P2 Economic Assessment Tool. Projects may not be one-size fits all, but the data gathered here will help you consider what might be the most successful practice(s), and that could serve as an example for the rest of the organization. Please use this P2 tool to evaluate any pollution prevention projects and initiatives you are considering - for YOUR facility, for YOUR people, and for YOUR Postal Service. Making informed decisions is the key to practicing pollution prevention. Refer to the Pollution Prevention Economic Assessment Tool webpage to learn more.

2.0. WASTE MINIMIZATION

This MMO is focused on P2, but it is also important to understand waste minimization and why it is a USPS policy.

Waste minimization is the reduction, to the extent feasible, of hazardous and regulated waste that is generated or subsequently treated, stored, or disposed. It includes any waste reduction or recycling activity undertaken by a waste generator that results in the reduction of total volume or quantity of a hazardous or regulated waste or in the reduction of toxicity of a hazardous waste.

Waste minimization practices, including reuse and recycling, minimize the amount of materials that are classified as wastes.

2.1. WASTE MINIMIZATION BULLETINS

You can begin the waste minimization journey by understanding the waste streams generated at your facility and developing strategies to reduce these wastes. A wide range of waste minimization benefits are discussed in Waste Minimization Advisory Bulletins located on the USPS Waste Minimization Bulletins webpage under Waste Minimization Bulletin Topics.

Waste minimization is not just about reducing environmental impacts. A waste minimization strategy can also improve production efficiency, profits, good neighbor image, product quality, and environmental performance. By implementing waste minimization practices, you can reduce:

- The quantity and toxicity of hazardous and solid waste generation
- Raw material purchase costs and raw material and product losses
- Waste management costs including recycling, energy recovery, treatment, or disposal; and recordkeeping and paperwork burdens
- Workplace accidents and worker exposure
- Compliance violations and environmental liability

To minimize waste:

1. Identify the waste streams at your facility and then select the applicable Waste Minimization Bulletins in Section 2.2.
2. Implement applicable waste minimization practices to reduce costs and decrease environmental liabilities.

NO: MMO-112-18
FILE CODE: M
rbla:mm18216ab

This Maintenance Management Order (MMO) supersedes MMO-002-08 and provides updated information on the USPS policy regarding targeted chemicals. This bulletin applies to Acronym ADMIN and Class Code AA

In order to minimize risk, the Postal Service must avoid procuring and/or using products containing certain hazardous chemicals that create unnecessary environmental and safety liabilities. The USPS has identified 13 targeted chemicals that are considered potentially dangerous and must not be used unless there are no viable alternatives. See the Attachment: USPS Targeted Chemicals List.

This MMO reiterates the longstanding Postal Service policy to avoid using products containing certain targeted hazardous chemicals. A policy reminder was issued by the Office of Sustainability in 2015 (CSO 01-05-2015). The list of 13 targeted chemicals has remained the same since 2008 and applies to all products used or purchased (including local buying activities).

The Postal Service is committed to protecting our employees from potentially dangerous exposure to chemicals in these products, as well as avoiding further harm to the environment. Therefore, all Postal Service offices are prohibited from procuring or using cleaners, paints, solvents, pesticides, adhesives, and any other chemical products containing the listed targeted chemicals, with limited exceptions. The Attachment contains approved exceptions in USPS Targeted Chemicals List. As an example, gasoline contains some of the listed chemicals but is essential as a vehicle fuel and lacks an adequate substitute.

For non-excepted products, the Office of Sustainability will permit, upon request, a case-by-case waiver when no viable alternatives are available.

Any request for a waiver must be sent via email to the Chief Sustainability Officer at sustainability@usps.gov; use the subject header "Targeted Chemical Waiver Request."

The request must include a justification for the exception, which should include work practices in place to safeguard employees from exposure. The Office of Safety and OSHA Compliance Programs must also concur with the waiver.

This policy should be shared with all offices that could potentially purchase or use products containing targeted chemicals.

Direct any questions or comments concerning this bulletin to the MTSC HelpDesk, online at <https://tickets.mtsc.usps.gov/login.php> or call (800) 366-4123.
